

Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu trying to sell Mr. Obama on the dire conditions in the Middle East.

According to a poll taken in November of 2011 by the European Commission, fifteen European countries believe Israel is the greatest threat to world peace. The Islamic Cooperation, made up of 57 Islamic nations, with a permanent delegation to the UN agrees. No only has it proposed, but it has helped pass more human rights resolutions against Israel than against all other nations combined. On paper, Israel is viewed as a greater threat to world peace than North Korea, Iran and Afghanistan. Addressing the Congress last year, Prime Minister Netanyahu explained, "Israel is not what is wrong with the Middle East; Israel is what is right in the Middle East."

"Peace be upon Israel...and may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life...." (Psalm 128:5, 6)

Paul wrote in I Timothy 6:12 to "...fight the good fight of faith!" It is a very descriptive action word that tells you that you must be pro-active in this life, living as a child of GOD. In the next part of that important verse, Paul goes on to say "...take hold of the eternal life to which you were called for you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses."

Have you ever thought about those things that get you excited and ready to go out and fight? Many years ago I made the decision to choose the battles that I was going to be involved in, because I learned that there are some wars that you have no business messing in...so I recommend that you "choose your battles" with much thought and prayer.

When David was running from King Saul, he wrote in Psalm 34:14, "Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Depart from evil and do good; SEEK PEACE...and pursue it!" Now, if anyone had a good reason for fighting, it was David. He had done nothing to King Saul and yet the king was wanting David's head. David had higher priorities than physically "getting even" because he knew that GOD had a better plan for him. Maybe if he would've pursued King Saul, he would've lost his position with GOD.

There are some things in this world that you must leave up to GOD...let Him be the avenger. One important Scripture passage that has had great significance in my life is Isaiah 54:17. When I'm torn up inside over something that has happened, especially when slander and lies are involved, I give it over to the Lord GOD, Who loves me:

"No weapon formed against me shall prosper, and every tongue that condemns me in judgment, I condemn, for this is the heritage of the servant of the Lord and my vindication is from GOD!" As I judge that situation in GOD's righteousness, I allow GOD to be my lawyer and He will vindicate me in righteousness!

There are things that happen in your life...your life is always changing; you need to be aware of that. Seasons change...companies change...YOU change! And with change comes challenges, but when you are walking close to the Lord, you know that He has your best interest in mind. Enjoy your GOD-given right to creatively pursue and explore other job opportunities. Permit GOD to walk you into your next chapter of success. Don't allow your life to be wrapped around strife and battles and conflicts but ask Holy Spirit to give you a new identity for your life; remember GOD says this in Isaiah 43:19, "Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall you not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert!" You serve a wonderful, mighty GOD Who is not limited in any way; when you give Him the authority to vindicate you from the battles and conflicts, He will go forth before you to establish great things for you...to walk by faith into a new life in Christ!

Change is the bridge to Tomorrow!

The Bible In The News...

(Sharon Johnson, who submitted this email declares, "We must be on our guard with a full suit of armor!")

Rick Warren, the pastor of Saddleback Church in California and of "The Purpose Driven Life" has now turned his interests to Islam:

- 1) He encourages Christians to celebrate the Islamic (pagan) feasts,
- 2) He declares that allah and GOD are one and is striving to join the two religions; although he says that he is not involved in any "Chrislam" movement, his actions speak louder than his words,
- 3) He associates frequently with the Islamic Society of North American which Federal judges found in 2008 operating as a terrorist organization in the Texas trials,
- 4) Rick Warren has been on Pres. Obama's Faith Counsel for several years now, and is "pastor" to Rupert Murdoch, who's media networks are the largest distributors of pornography in the world,
- 5) He is on Tony Blair and Bill Clinton's Faith Foundation advisory counsel, which seeks to join all religions together in a common mission. He will not respond to efforts of meeting with evangelical leaders.

Please join the Body of Christ in praying for Rick Warren and his congregation, and for the Lord Jesus to speak to him about the disturbing direction their ministry is headed. "See to it that you be not misled; for many will come in My Name, saying, 'I am He,'...do not go after them!" (Luke 21:8)

"Where there is no vision (revelation), the people are unrestrained, but happy are those who keep His Word!" (Proverbs 29:18)

Homes Of Refuge
Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Nolhyn came to Santa Maria Children's Home at the age of 12. When he was an infant, his father began physically and emotionally abusing him, which continued until his mother separated from his father 4 years later. When Nolhyn's mother remarried, the relationship between Nolhyn and his stepfather was constant conflict, and Nolyhn would run away from home and go to places where the internet was available. This addiction-forming behavior certainly played a role in the tension in his home, and formed so much of Nolhyn's behavior and emotional attitudes.

Eventually, fearing that she would either lose him to the streets or at the hands of her angry new husband, Nolhyn's mother asked if Santa Maria Children's Home would rehabilitate Nolhyn. When Nolhyn came to Santa Maria children's Home, because of a background of emotional problems, he had a very difficult time adjusting to a new way of living. Nolhyn was placed in a lower grade because he was not capable of doing grade-level work for his age. Little by little, he has been improving and his behavior and attitude has given him friendships among the other children. He now wants to advance in school, complete his daily chores, finish his weekly homework, and take responsibilities at the home. We are also grateful that he no longer has any addiction to the internet, and overall is exhibiting a more calm and humble disposition than before. This behavior may not seem valuable to many, but this is what GOD values; He esteems it when a life like Nolhyn's can be offered hope and a chance to be loved. You have had a part in Nolhyn's transformation...because of your prayers and your giving. Thank you!

Freedom - An Eagle Kissed By GOD & Jess

Freedom and I have been together 13 years this summer. She came in as a baby in 1998 with two broken wings. Her left wing doesn't open all the way even after surgery. It was broken in four places. When Freedom came in she could not stand; she was emaciated and covered in lice. We made the decision to give her a chance at life, so I took her to the vet's office. From then on, I was always around her. We had her in a huge dog carrier with the top off, loaded with shredded newspaper for her to lie in. I used to sit and talk to her, urging her to live - to fight, and she would lie there looking at me with those big brown eyes. We had to tube feed her for 4 - 6 weeks, and by then she still couldn't stand. It got to the point where, if she couldn't stand in a week, the decision was made to euthanize her. You don't want to cross that line between torture and rehab, but it looked like death was winning. She was going to be put down that Friday, and I was supposed to come in on the Thursday afternoon. That Thursday I dreaded the thought of her being put down, but I went, and when I walked in everyone was grinning from ear to ear. I went immediately back to her cage and there she was...standing on her own - a big beautiful eagle. She was ready to live and it brought me to tears. That was a very good day! We knew she could never fly, so the director asked me to glove-train her. I got her used to the glove and then to jesses, and we started doing education programs for schools in western Washington. We were in the newspapers, radio (believe it or not), and some TV. Miracle Pets even did a show about us.

In the spring of 2000, I was diagnosed with stage 3, non-Hodgkins lymphoma, which is not good (one major organ plus everywhere else in the body), so I wound up doing eight months of chemo. I lost my hair and I missed a lot of work. When I felt good enough, I would go take Freedom out for walks. I dreamed about Freedom helping me fight the cancer; this happened time and time again. Fast forward to November 2000 - the day after Thanksgiving. I went in for my last check-up. I was told that if the cancer was not all gone after eight rounds of chemo, then my last option was a stem-cell transplant. I went in Monday after Thanksgiving, and I was told that the cancer was gone - all of it! So the first thing I did was to take Freedom out for a walk; it was misty and cold. I went and jessed her up, and we went to the top of the hill. I hadn't said a word to Freedom, but somehow she knew. She looked at me and wrapped both her wings around me to where I could feel them pressing in on my back (I was engulfed in eagle wings), and she touched my nose with her beak and stared into my eyes. We just stood there like that for I don't know how long. That was a magical moment. We have been soul mates ever since...she is a very special bird! It is such an honor being so close to such a magnificent spirit as Freedom. (email by Jerry Becker)

Heart Cries

and PRAISE REPORTS

Dear Barbara, I have a Praise Report: On Resurrection Day, my son, his wife and two children were on their way to a friend's house to enjoy brunch. Since it was a short distance, they let the children ride their bikes. The children were peddling ahead of the car, and as they got to the intersection, Samantha got across the street, but David was hit by an oncoming car. He flew up into the windshield, and then the top of the car and fell to the pavement. The impact totally smashed the windshield, but my daughter-in-law said it was as if Someone gently lifted him off the top of the car and laid him on the pavement. He had NO injuries whatsoever! He was sore, but other than that he is perfectly okay. My daughter-in-law told me that people from a nearby church came out into the street and prayed for David. When she told me that I was almost laughing with Joy!

Also, I am able to engage my sister in talking about the Bible. Last night we must have talked for 30 minutes...I am encouraging her to read through the Bible with me. I'm praying that she will do it. Thank you for encouraging us to be pro-active. Love and blessings, Sherilynne (Arvada, CO)
