

The Climate Change Deception...

KATHY GROSSER - ARCTIC OCEAN WARMING ALERT - The Arctic Ocean is warming up, icebergs are growing scarcer and in some places the seals are finding the water too hot according to a report to the Commerce Department yesterday from the Consulate at Bergen, Norway. Reports from fishermen, seal hunters and explorers all point to a radical change in climate conditions and hitherto unheard of temperatures in the Arctic zone. Exploration expeditions report that scarcely any ice has been met as far north as 81 degrees 29 minutes. Soundings to a depth of 3,100 meters showed the Gulf Stream very warm. Great masses of ice have been replaced by earth and stones, the report continued, while at many points well known glaciers have entirely disappeared. Very few seals and no white fish are found in the eastern Arctic, while vast shoals of herring and smelts which have never before ventured so far north, are being encountered in the old seal fishing grounds. Within a few years it is predicted that due to the ice melt the sea will rise and make most coast cities uninhabitable.

Oh, I must apologize. I neglected to mention that this report was from November 2, 1922, as reported by the AP and published in The Washington Post - 96 years ago. Perhaps the 1922 assessment concluded that the situation must have been caused by the Model T Ford's emissions, or possibly from horse and cattle farts. "Because they did not receive the truth, GOD will cause them to be greatly deceived (a spirit of delusion), and they will believe these lies." (1 Thessalonians 2:10-11)

"JOY To the World!"
by Barbara Carmack

One of the fondest childhood memories I have of Christmas is going to downtown Denver with family to see all the window displays and the lights...so many lights. All of downtown Denver was lit up like it was day. For a child who lived on a farm in rural Weld County where the nearest neighbor was one mile away, Denver was a visual candy cane lane, with wonderful smells of spices and cinnamon filling one's head.

I remember walking into May D & F and Neusteters and being totally blown away by all the extravagance and color. My aunt worked at the huge department store, so she showed us different areas of the store that most customers didn't know about. And then there was the cafeteria where you could order anything you wanted. For a twelve-year-old, I thought I was in heaven. It wasn't until I went to California to college, and walking into the Broadway Department store in downtown Pasadena, that I realized I was back in the Neusteters Department store in Denver.

I thought there could be nothing better on earth...and when I got my pay check, I didn't put all my money in books and gasoline... No! I went to the Broadway and looked at all the fashions and shoes...oh, those shoes!

There are so many things in this world that one would consider the best or the greatest...and maybe, according to world standards, there is nothing better than what technology has given mankind. The other day, as I was watching the landing on the moon in 1967, I realized there is just about nothing that man cannot do. But, Friend, there is something that man cannot do - turn a cold, cold heart into a tender and gentle heart.

And there's only One Person that is capable of bringing that transformation to the human heart - JESUS! He came into this world, a world that basically didn't want anything to do with Him. It was a world in darkness, and still is...but because of all the lights from cities and stores and generator plants, they don't recognize the true Light of the World. This world is in the dark about the true Light; it is a world that is in darkness "...and the shadow of death" (Isaiah 61:1-2), yet He has made a way to bring light into the darkened soul and peace to every heart that will accept Him: "His life brought light to everyone. The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it." (John 1:4-5)

In John 8:12, JESUS Himself said, "I AM the Light of the world; if you follow Me, you won't have to walk in darkness, because you will have the Light that leads to Life!"

This year I saw GOD work a miracle of changing a heart of stone into a tender and soft heart that GOD could work with. There are many others out there who need a miracle touch from GOD. Don't ever sell GOD short; He's got so many creative ideas that will leave you speechless, if you will only let Him have His way. May D & F and Neusteters Department Stores are gone and new names have taken their place. Kings and kingdoms will all pass away, but there is a Name that you can trust in: JESUS...there's just something about that Name! That Name brings Light, Life, Peace and Joy into your world!

JESUS - the Light of Life!

Keeping America Great!

By Paul Harvey: "I don't believe in Santa Claus, but I'm not going to sue somebody for singing a Ho-Ho-Ho song in December. I don't agree with Darwin, but I didn't go out and hire a lawyer when my high school teacher taught his theory of evolution. Life, liberty or your pursuit of happiness will not be endangered because someone says a 30-second prayer before a football game. So what's the big deal? It's not like somebody is up there reading the entire book of Acts. They're just talking to a GOD they believe in and asking Him to grant safety to the players on the field and the fans going home from the game. 'But it's a Christian prayer,' some will argue. Yes, and this is the United States of America, a country founded on Christian principles. Christian churches outnumber all others better than 200-to-1. So what would you expect - somebody chanting Hare Krishna before the game? If I went to a football game in Jerusalem, I would expect to hear a Jewish prayer. If I went to a soccer game in Baghdad, I would expect to hear a Muslim prayer. If I went to a ping pong match in China, I would expect to hear someone pray to Buddha. And I wouldn't be offended. It wouldn't bother me one bit; when in Rome.... 'But what about the atheists?' That's another argument. Nobody is asking them to be baptized. We're not going to pass the collection plate. Just humor me for 30 seconds. Christians are sick and tired of turning the other cheek while our courts strip us of all our rights. Our parents and grandparents taught us to pray before eating - to pray before we go to sleep. Our Bible tells us to pray without ceasing (Eph. 6:18). Now a handful of people and their lawyers are telling us to cease praying?"

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

We now have 16 residents: 11 children and 5 elderly; Mauro, the gentleman in the middle of the photo, was the first grandpa to enter the home. He is paralyzed on the left side of his body, which, along with a head injury, resulted from a rather high fall at some point in his life. The night Mauro was brought to the home, I (Tony) fed him a meal, helped him get washed up and changed into new, clean pajamas and carefully assisted him into his brand new bed for a good night's rest. "Do You like it here?" I asked him, and at that moment with his head just above the blankets, he smiled and said, "Yes, I do like it here." And then he asked, "How much is this going to cost me?" My heart was touched in that moment by the compassion GOD feels for Mauro. "Nothing," I replied. "It is a gift from GOD." He smiled again and closed his eyes.

The next morning, we gave him a proper bath, with layers of dirt coming off in the water. He told Rosa this past week, "It is like I came from hell and am now living in glory!" And that's just one person and one example of what your donations and love are doing for these people who find themselves out in the street. Your giving is rewriting Mauro's story and many others in this Home of Refuge that you have built. Thank you many times over for this dream that has become a reality!

GOD Works In Mysterious Ways!

(Story submitted by Harold Fast)

The brand new pastor and his wife, newly assigned to their first ministry to reopen a church in suburban Brooklyn, arrived in early October excited about their opportunities. When they saw their church, it was very run down. They set a goal to have everything done in time to have their first service on Christmas Eve. They worked hard, repairing pews, plastering walls, painting, etc, and on December 18 were ahead of schedule. On December 19 a driving rainstorm hit the area and lasted for two days. On the 21st, the pastor went over to the church. His heart sank when he saw that the roof had leaked, causing a large area of plaster about 20 feet by 8 feet to fall off the front wall of the sanctuary just behind the pulpit. The pastor cleaned up the mess on the floor, and not knowing what else to do but postpone the Christmas Eve service, headed home. On the way he noticed that a local business was having a flea market type sale for charity, so he stopped in. One of the items was a beautiful, handmade, ivory colored, crocheted tablecloth with exquisite work, fine colors and a cross embroidered right in the center; it was just the right size to cover the hole in the front wall. He bought it and headed back to the church. By this time it had started to snow. An older woman running from the opposite direction had missed the bus, so the pastor invited her to wait in the warm church for the next bus 45 minutes later.

She sat in a pew and paid no attention to the pastor while he got a ladder, hangers, etc., to put up the tablecloth as a wall tapestry. The pastor could hardly believe how beautiful it looked and it covered up the entire problem area. Then he noticed the woman walking down the center aisle; her face was white as a sheet. "Pastor," she asked, "where did you get that tablecloth?" As the pastor explained where he got it, the woman asked him to check the lower right corner to see if the initials "EBG" were crocheted into it; they were. These were the initials of the woman, and she had made this tablecloth 35 years before, in Austria. The woman explained that before the war she and her husband were well-to-do people in Austria. When the Nazis came, she was forced to leave. Her husband was going to follow her the next week. He was captured, sent to prison and she never saw her husband or her home again. The pastor wanted to give her the tablecloth, but she made the pastor keep it for the church. The pastor insisted on driving her home. She lived on the other side of Staten Island and was only in Brooklyn for the day for a housecleaning job.

What a wonderful service they had on Christmas Eve! The church was almost full. The music and the spirit were great. At the end of the service, the pastor and his wife greeted everyone at the door and many said that they would return. One older man whom the pastor recognized from the neighborhood, continued to sit in one of the pews and stare, and the pastor wondered why he wasn't leaving. The man asked him where he got the tablecloth on the front wall because it was identical to one that his wife had made years ago when they lived in Austria before the war, and how could there be two tablecloths so much alike? He told the pastor how the Nazis came, how he forced his wife to flee for her safety and he was supposed to follow her, but he was arrested and put in a prison. He never saw his wife or his home again in all the 35 years between. The pastor asked him if he would allow him to take him for a little ride. They drove to Staten Island and to the same house where the pastor had taken the woman three days earlier. He helped the man climb the three flights of stairs to the woman's apartment, knocked on the door and he saw the greatest Christmas reunion he could ever imagine! True story - submitted by Pastor Rob Reid who says GOD does work in mysterious ways.
