This article appeared in 2014, written by Zack Hunt, a liberal media reporter who does NOT believe in the Rapture. Those who do NOT believe in the Rapture will go through the Tribulation.... “Believe on the LORD JESUS Christ...and you shall be saved!” (Acts 16:31)

What Is the RAPTURE?

The word “Rapture” is derived from the Latin word for “Caught up” - “rapturo” (Harpazo in the Greek) Rapturo was taken from the Latin Vulgate Bible; this is what the Bible says about being “caught up”...
“...for the LORD Himself will come down from heaven, with a shout - with the voice of the archangel - and with the trumpet of GOD; and the dead in Christ shall rise first... then we who are alive and remain shall be “caught up” together with them in the clouds to meet the LORD in the air, and thus we shall always be with the LORD...therefore encourage each other with these words!”
(I Thessalonians 4:16-18)

As you begin this very important year on the LORD's calendar, may you have a new perspective of the things that are vital to GOD, and make a promise that you will not take back...any time this year - to be more like JESUS in every area of your life. This article was given to my daughter, Kimberly, by her pastor, from a Messianic tour guide in Israel; keep this prayer close to you in 2015...Maranatha!

I cannot say “OUR...” if my heart has no room for others and their needs.
I cannot say “FATHER...” if I do not demonstrate this relationship in my daily living.
I cannot say “WHO ART IN HEAVEN...” if all my interests and pursuits are in earthly things.
I cannot say “HALLOWED BE THY NAME...” if I, who am called to bear His Name, am not seeking to be holy.
I cannot say “THY KINGDOM COME...” if I am unwilling to give up my own sovereignty and accept the righteous reign of GOD.
I cannot say “THY WILL BE DONE...” if I am unwilling or resentful of having His will in my life.
I cannot say “ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN...” unless I am truly ready to give myself to His service here and now.
I cannot say “GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD...” without expending an honest effort for it, or if I would withhold from my neighbor the bread I receive.
I cannot say “FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US...” if I continue to harbor a grudge against anyone.
I cannot say “and LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION...” if I deliberately choose to remain in a situation where I am likely to be tempted; thank You, LORD, for not leading me into that temptation....
I cannot say “but DELIVER US FROM EVIL...” if I am not prepared to fight in the spiritual realm with the Weapon of Prayer.
I cannot say “FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM...” if I am unwilling to obey the King, and let Him take complete control.
I cannot say “THINE IS THE POWER AND THE GLORY...” if I am seeking power for myself and my own glory.
I cannot say “FOREVER...” if I am too anxious about each day's events.
I cannot say “AMEN....” unless I can honestly say, “Cost what it may, this is my prayer!”

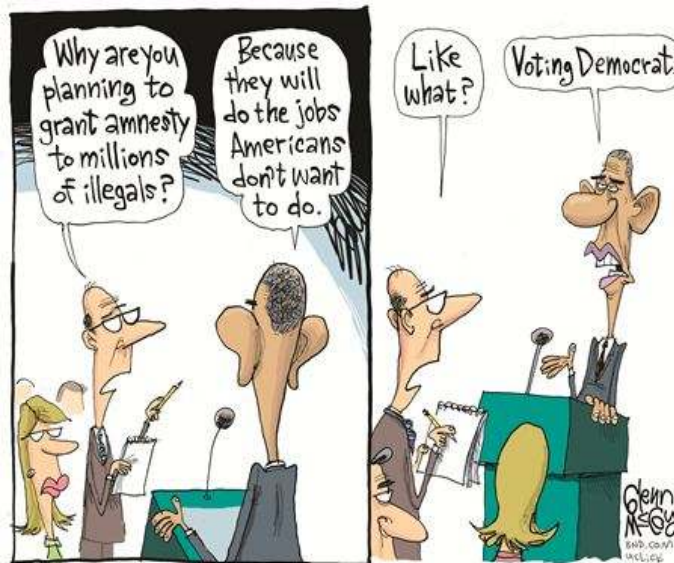

“...and they overcame him by the Blood of the Lamb and the Word of their testimony...and they didn't value their lives even to the death!”
(Revelation 12:11)

Be it done to me according to Your Word!

The Bible In The News...

Obama's vs. Roosevelt's Takes On Immigration:

This is true, and written in a letter by Theodore Roosevelt, the 26th President of the United States, in 1919, the day before he died. He gave his ideas on immigration and being an American to the then Pres. William Howard Taft:

"In the first place, we will insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birth-place, or origin. But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American, and nothing but an American...there can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but is something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag.... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language. And we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people."
Theodore Roosevelt - 1919

Lost In Translation... By Theresa Wilson Golden, Colorado

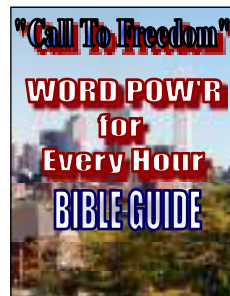

"Ever and once before You knew my name...a knock at the door, Your voice was the same. Before and beyond, I heard You say how all was brought forth in just one day.... All that was seen in a vision is clear, words spoken are ever so near. The voice and the vision heard and seen from afar - the Light so shines from a distance star, traveling through time and space....Past eternity into a different place, echo the words from where You are; for he who overcomes is given the Bright Morning Star! Now the eyes of the LORD run to and fro, His wisdom is given to those who know of His deep Secret Mysteries; to those He sees....They are found - to those who once were bound, they travel through the speed of sound! Now is given the Key to unlock the Door of Truth to His Heart Forevermore!"

Look On the Bright Side...

A 92-year-old, petite, well-poised and proud man, moved to a assisted living facility today. His habit for over 70 years was to be fully dressed each morning by eight o'clock, and shaved, with his hair fashionably combed...all this and he is legally blind. His wife of seventy years recently passed away, making the move to the assisted living necessary. After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the assisted living facility, he smiled sweetly when told his room was ready.

As he maneuvered his walker to the elevator, I provided a visual description of his tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that had been hung on his window. "I love it," he stated with the enthusiasm of an eight-year-old having just been presented with a new puppy.

"Mr. Jones, you haven't seen the room; just wait.." "That doesn't have anything to do with it," he replied. "Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged .. it's how I arrange my mind. I already decided to love it. It's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice: I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or get out of bed and be thankful for the ones that do. Each day is a gift, and as long as my eyes open, I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away...just for this time in my life."

Old age is like a bank account. You withdraw from what you've put in. So, my advice to you would be to deposit a lot of happiness in the bank account of memories! Thank you for your part in filling my Memory Bank. I am still depositing. Remember the five simple rules to be happy: 1) Free your heart from hatred, 2) Free your mind from worries, 3) Live simply, 4) Give more, 5) Expect less, for "...it is better to give than to receive!" (Acts 20:35)

"May your troubles be less, your blessings more, and may nothing but happiness come through the door. Life without GOD is like an unsharpened pencil - it has no point." Billy Graham

Homes Of Refuge Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Feliz Ano Nuevo from Homes of Refuge!

I (Tony) just returned from Peru, and it was a very successful trip. When I arrived, the gate was closed. I stood knocking for a short while but must not have been heard, for it did not open until a vehicle approached, and the gate had to be opened so that they could leave; it was the new directors. Delighted to see me, they explained that they were on their way to the market in order to purchase minimal food items to make a soup. There was not even enough food in the pantry at that time to provide for the upcoming lunch hour, and they were hoping that a small soup would last several days, until more money could be provided.

I joined them in the car, and purchased an entire month's worth of food to cover three meals per day, plus the "extras" that we like to lavish on the children (cake, lollipops, soda, etc.). The directors were very appreciative and stated that we are the ones helping them survive. One of them said, "Tony, I tell you, if you do not come each month, we do not have enough to feed our children...and they would NEVER get the extra goodies if you did not buy them for us."

It was touching to see the children's faces light up when they were called to the table for lunch that day, complete with dessert!

Thank you for making this possible for them. Let's stand strong in this New Year!
