

How the Durango Kid Celebrated the 4th...

FROM JULY 2002 FREEDOM MAGAZINE: "July 4th brings back so many memories of church gatherings and family picnics. When Dad pastored a church in Durango, CO, I remember well that July. I was in the 3rd grade. Fireworks were available everywhere, including cherry bombs and 4"ers. Some fireworks were almost like dynamite, making windows shake and dogs bark. I had smaller firecrackers, about the size of a pencil. I would light the fuses and throw the firecrackers up in the air enjoying every explosion they made. But this one firecracker had a quick fuse and it went off in my hand. My whole hand went numb and I thought my hand might never work right again. Talk about being scared; I didn't try fireworks for a while. I've had many 'grace moments' in my life, and this was one of them. *And the LORD was good to me...my hand works just fine!

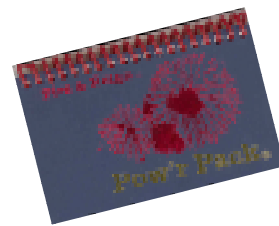

On the 4th of July, we celebrate our nation's independence. History reveals that a handful of men paid a dear price for our freedoms that we enjoy...wanting all to be free! When you get 'born again' (born from above), you receive Freedom from Satan's kingdom, the kingdom of darkness. In your former life you were a slave to sin and the satanic ruler of bondage. Now you are free! So during this national remembrance and celebration of our country's birth, remember to thank JESUS for your spiritual freedom from bondage and the prison of darkness you were in. JESUS paid the ultimate price for you to be free. 'It was for freedom that JESUS set you free; so stand firm, and be no longer subject to a yoke of slavery!' (Galatians 5:1) Be sure to thank Him!" DC

*Let go of the things that have a short fuse!

Is It Too Late?

By Barbara Carmack

"Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same." Ronald Reagan

A quote from Franklin Graham: "Time is like a river. You cannot touch the water twice, because the flow that has passed will never pass again." Franklin Graham was speaking at the First Baptist Church in Jacksonville, Florida in 2015, when he said, "America will not come back." He wrote: "The American dream ended on November 6th, 2012 in Ohio. The second term of Barack Obama has been the final nail in the coffin for the legacy of the white Christian males who discovered, explored, pioneered, settled and developed the greatest Republic in the history of mankind.

A coalition of blacks, Latinos, feminists, gays, government workers, union members, environmental extremists, the media, Hollywood, uninformed young people, the 'forever needy,' the chronically unemployed, illegal aliens and other 'fellow travelers' have ended Norman Rockwell's America. You will never again out-vote these people. It will take individual acts of defiance and massive displays of civil disobedience to get back the rights we have allowed them to take away. It will take zealots, not moderates and shy, not reach-across-the-aisle RINOs, to right this ship and restore our beloved country to its former status.

People like me are completely politically irrelevant, and I will probably never again be able to legally comment on or concern myself with the aforementioned coalition which has surrendered our culture, our heritage and our traditions without a shot being fired. The cocker spaniel is off the front porch, the pit bull is in the back yard. The American Constitution has been replaced with Saul Alinsky's 'Rules for Radicals' and the likes of Chicago shyster David Axelrod along with international socialist George Soros (who owns Progressive Insurance), have been pulling the strings on their puppet and brought us Act 2 of the New World Order.

The curtain will come down but the damage has been done, the story has been told. Those who come after us will once again have to risk their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to bring back the Republic that this generation has timidly frittered away due to white guilt and political correctness...."

Is it too late? It's never too late for souls to be won for the LORD. With GOD all things are possible, even in this age of humanism. You have been created to win the lost for the LORD: "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel...." Your assignment is to go into your world, the world around you, and tell everyone you know that JESUS is LORD, and tell of His salvation that is free to all who call upon His Name: "If you confess with your mouth that JESUS is LORD, and Believe in your heart that GOD raised Him up from the dead, you shall be saved." (Ro. 10:9-10)

You may be the only one to reach someone you know for the Kingdom of GOD... "This is good in the sight of GOD Who desires ALL men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth!" (I Timothy 24)

So...Go Tell Everyone You Know About JESUS!

"One Nation...UNDER GOD!"

As many of you are aware, it was the Knights of Columbus who submitted to Congress that the words "Under GOD" should be added to our pledge of allegiance. Both Houses of Congress passed the law and it was signed by President Eisenhower in 1954.

1892 - "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the republic for which it stands: one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

1892 to 1923 - "I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the republic for which it stands: one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

1923 to 1924 - "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States and to the republic for which it stands: one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

1924 to 1954 - "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands; one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

1954 to Present - "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under GOD, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under GOD, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

"Blessed is the Nation... Whose GOD is the LORD!"

(Psalm 33:12)

PRAISE REPORT... Thank You!

I have to tell you what a privilege it is to have powerful Pow'r Partners at a time when I needed agreement. If you are a grand parent, then you know the emotions that occur when you see the devil trying to attack and destroy your children or grandchildren. You go into the "War Room" and you intercede like you've never interceded before. Well, this grandma is learning so many new things in the spirit, and for the most part...the Principle of Agreement.

Thank you so much for praying for my grandson, Caleb Wells, who was a very sick guy. He had just returned from his first year at Grand Canyon University in Phoenix, and had been working at Glen Eyrie for about a week when he was viciously attacked by the enemy! When he arrived at the ER, they packed him in ice because his brain was "on fire".

When I went to visit him that first week-end, I'd never seen so many tubes and wires connected to a human being as I saw in that hospital room. Well, grandma took the anointing oil and anointed him on every piece of skin that was visible, from the top of his head to the toes on his feet. He awakened out of his coma 12 hours later, and was walking down the hospital hallway the next day. Today he is doing well and adjusting to some new plans for his life.

His Life For Mine...

Email submitted by Jon Sheppard

After living what I felt was a "decent life", my time on earth came to an end. The first thing I remember is sitting on a bench in the waiting room of what I thought to be a court house. The doors opened and I was instructed to come in and have a seat by the defense table. As I looked around, I saw the 'prosecutor'; he was a villainous-looking man who snarled as he stared at me. He definitely was the most evil person I had ever seen. I sat down and looked to my left...and there sat my Attorney - a kind looking man whose appearance seemed so familiar to me; I felt I knew Him. The corner door opened and there appeared the Judge in full flowing robes.

He commanded an awesome presence as He moved across the room...I couldn't take my eyes off of Him. As He took His seat behind the bench, He said, "Let us begin." The prosecutor rose and said, "My name is satan, and I am here to show you why this man belongs in hell." He proceeded to tell of lies that I had told, things that I had stolen in the past, and when I cheated others. He told of other horrible perversions that were once a part of my life, and the more he spoke, the further down in my seat I sank. I was so embarrassed that I couldn't look at anyone, even my own Attorney, as the devil told of sins that even I had completely forgotten about.

As upset as I was at the prosecutor for telling all these things about me, I was equally upset at my Attorney Who sat there silently, not offering any form of defense at all. I knew I had been guilty of those things, but I had done some good in my life too; couldn't that at least equal out part of the harm I'd done? The devil finished with a fury and said, "This man belongs in hell; he is guilty of all that I have charged and there is not a person who can prove otherwise." When it was His turn, my Attorney first asked if He might approach the bench. The Judge allowed this over the strong objection of the prosecutor, and beckoned Him to come forward.

As He got up and started walking, I was able to see Him in His full splendor and majesty. I realized why He seemed so familiar; this was Christ JESUS representing me, my Savior and LORD! He stopped at the bench and then turned around to face the court. "The prosecutor was correct in saying that this man has sinned; I won't deny any of these allegations. And, yes, the wages of sin is death...and this man deserves to be punished."

JESUS took a deep breath and turned to His Father with outstretched arms, proclaiming, "However, I died on the cross so that this person might have Eternal Life...and he has accepted Me as his Savior, so he is Mine!" My LORD continued with, "His name is written in the Book of Life, and no one can snatch him from Me. The devil does not understand yet; this man is not to be given justice, but rather mercy." As JESUS sat down, He quietly paused, looked at His Father and said, "There is nothing else that needs to be said or done; I've done it all...it is finished!" The Judge lifted His mighty hand and slammed the gavel down; The following words bellowed from His lips: "This man is free; the penalty for him has already been Paid In Full...CASE DISMISSED!"

Home Of Refuge Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Ever came to Santa Maria Orphanage in a dense fog...far from reality, because he had to live a life shrouded by confusion and uncertainty. His life was filled with such uncertainty as to where he was going to get his next meal, that he took to the streets daily, seeking escape from a home environment that was rift with mental illness, including schizophrenia. How could he properly navigate through all of that as a young boy? He needed a place where he could count on stability and consistency, instead of abuse and madness.

In four short months after entering the safe haven of Santa Maria's, we see joy in his heart and he's beginning to adapt well to the home environment and the rest of the children. Thank you for praying for Ever during this transitional season in his life. It is an amazing opportunity that he has been granted - to be rescued out of abuse and dysfunction, and to be welcomed into a home with open arms and warm and accepting hearts. Your giving is what opened that door for Ever. Your monthly support is making a difference in his life.

We would like to buy shoes for the children before they start a new school year. We know that you will prayerfully consider sending the necessary funds for this need. As you invest in the Kingdom of GOD on this earth, He will bless you beyond measure in this life and the life to come!
