

"The Summer Barbecooler"

I FINALLY REALIZED IT...PEOPLE ARE PRISONERS OF THEIR PHONES... THAT'S WHY THEY ARE CALLED CELL PHONES!

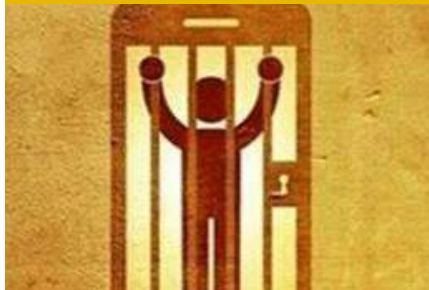

Photo submitted by Jon Sheppard

This ingenious barbecue does two things - 1) it cools the drinks and 2) cooks the meat all at the same time. When you are finished barbecuing and the ice has melted, just pull the handle down, and the fire goes out; is this a great country or what? Are you up for a hot dog or a hamburger on the toilet?

GOD'S PORCH...
By Barbara Carmack, with contributing article by Archie Moody

It used to be, in the 30's, 40's and 50's that front porches were the very center of neighborhood chats, where people would get caught up on their neighbor's activities and the latest news...the porch was the social media of that day. There are houses being built today that have front porches, but they're mainly there for looks...and maybe a nostalgic memory of those times, now long ago. Yes, in those days friends and neighbors would come over and sink into those wicker chairs or the rocker that took up the space on that porch. Drinks would be offered and accepted...and there were bursts of laughter or a groan or two...but words came easily as they talked about memories, hopes and struggles....Those were the "good ol' days."

GOD has a place where He wants to meet with you...on His porch. He wants you to tell Him about your struggles and your achievements, your hopes and even the disappointments. He welcomes you to come any time and you can stay as long as you want, because "...in rest and confidence is your strength." (Isaiah 30:15) He never sends you away empty but instead fills your cup and feeds you the Bread of Life that your soul hungers for. Do you have a hunger to go deeper in the things of the LORD: "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for they shall be filled!" That's a Promise from GOD. Are you hungry for more of Him? He will fill you up!

As you sit and chat, you learn about His ways and what He expects from your time on earth. Through time with Him, you realize what an awesome Friend you have...One Who is always available...When you come to Him, He will meet your need: "My GOD shall supply ALL my need according to His riches in Glory in Christ JESUS!" Spending time with GOD will give you a clearer picture of things, and you will gain strength from His words of comfort and hope. When you climb those steps to GOD's Porch with a heavy heart, after you've spent some time with Him...you will feel refreshed when you leave. You will look at the end of your day with a much lighter spirit because you have taken the time to be with GOD, your Friend.

It's so important that you don't treat GOD as an acquaintance but a very good Friend...that you establish a relationship with Him: "You're the kind of Friend I could sit with just sharing the sunshine...without saying a word...and then go away feeling like that was the best conversation I had all day!" You want your heavenly Father to know that you not only say you love Him...but you want to spend time with Him. Terry MacAlmon wrote a song that explains the Joy of being with the Father: "I want to spend some time...spend some time with You...just ease my mind with You; for nothing can compare with the way that I feel there...so I will spend some time with You. For when I'm sitting at Your feet, You make my Joy complete! I've gotta spend some time with You....For there I will rejoice as I listen to Your voice when I spend some time with You!" When you spend time with your heavenly Father...you'll want to spend more time with Him. "In Your Presence is fullness of Joy...and at Your right hand are pleasures forevermore!" (Psalm 16:11)

The Bible In The News... Remembering D-DAY, 1944

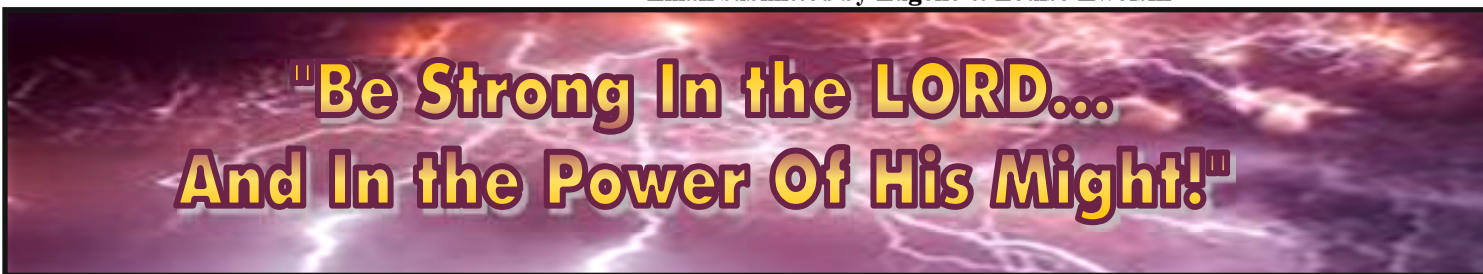

Every year the French have a 4-day celebration in Normandy complete with American uniforms, tanks, jeeps and guns. They still honor the Americans who died there - June 6, 1944 - the 74th anniversary of "D-Day". This was the largest invasion ever attempted, where 200,000 Americans stormed the beaches at Normandy to begin the final push to defeat Nazi Germany in WWII. D-Day marked the turning point in WWII in Europe. Today, European heads of state make it a point to recall and honor the sacrifices of those who landed in Normandy, as do our Presidents... since 1984. In the 74 years since D-Day, there are four occasions when the President of the United States chose not to visit the D-Day Monument that honors the soldiers killed during the Invasion. The occasions were: 1) Barack Obama - 2010, 2) Barack Obama - 2011, 3) Barack Obama - 2012, 4) Barack Obama - 2013. Although Barack Obama was at the ceremony in Normandy in 2009, he did not attend the next four years. Six thousand plus Americans were killed that day on the beaches of Normandy...

Pentecost occurred on May 20th this year; what is Pentecost? The word "Pentecost" - which means 50 - is the 50th day after Passover. In Deuteronomy 16:9, the LORD commanded that after observing Passover with unleavened bread, that Israel would count seven weeks, or 49 days, and then begin the Feast of First Fruits - the Feast of Weeks - later called Pentecost, or Shavuot. This was in commemoration of the spring harvest. The number "49" is very significant because it is the square of the holy or complete number SEVEN: 7 squared = 49. At this feast, two loaves of bread and a "kid of the goats," were offered for a sin offering. The two loaves of bread represent Israel and Gentiles, coming together as one.

JESUS - Yeshua - Who is called the Bread of Life and the Lamb of GOD, became the spiritual loaves and the sacrifice offering for sin (sin offering) of the New Covenant. It is truly significant that JESUS is called "The First-fruit from the dead": "Now is Christ risen from the dead, the Firstfruits of them that sleep." (I Corinthians 15:20) In the Christians tradition, Pentecost has taken on a new meaning, as this was the moment that Holy Spirit came and filled a small group of Jewish men and women (120 of them) with "Power from on high!" (Acts 2:4)

Holy Spirit - the Spirit of Truth in John 16:13 - comes to dwell in each and every Believer and is:

- 1) Your Helper or Comforter (Greek= Paraclete),
- 2) Your Teacher Who instructs you in the things of GOD,
- 3) Your Intercessor - Spirit of Truth - Who leads you into all the truth, and
- 4) Your Guide, Who reveals to you the future - things to come...it is a wonderful time to celebrate the Glory of GOD...His Presence in YOU!

Who's Your Daddy? Story submitted by Dan Ramsey

A seminary professor was vacationing with his wife in Gatlinburg, Tenn. One morning, while they were eating breakfast at a little restaurant, a distinguished looking, white-haired man was moving from table to table, visiting with the guests. The professor leaned over and whispered to his wife, "I hope he doesn't come over here." But sure enough, he came over to their table. "Where are you folks from?" he asked in a friendly voice. "Oklahoma," they answered. "Great to have you here in Tennessee," the stranger said... "What do you do for a living?" "I teach at a seminary," I replied. "Oh, so you teach preachers how to preach, do you? Well, I've got a really great story for you." The gentleman pulled up a chair, sat down at the table with the couple, and began to tell his story. The professor groaned and thought to himself, "Great...just what we need...another preacher story!"

The man started, "See that mountain over there?" he said, pointing out the restaurant window. "Not far from the base of that mountain, there was a boy born to an unwed mother. He had a hard time growing up, because every place he went, he was always asked the same question, 'Hey boy, who's your daddy?' Whether he was at school, in the grocery store or drug store, people would ask the same question, 'Who's your daddy?' He would avoid going in to stores because he felt so bad. When he was about 12 years old, a new preacher came to his church. He would always go in late and slip out early to avoid hearing the question, 'Who's your daddy?' But one day, the new preacher said the benediction so fast that he got caught and had to walk out with the crowd. Just about the time he got to the back door, the new preacher, not knowing anything about him, put his hand on his shoulder and asked him, 'Son, who's Your daddy?' Everyone got deathly quiet; he could feel every eye in the church was looking at him. This new preacher sensed the situation around him and using Holy Spirit discernment, he said the following to that scared little boy: 'Wait a minute! I know who you are! I see the family resemblance now; you're a child of GOD!' With that he patted the boy on his shoulder and said, 'Boy, you've got a great inheritance. Go and claim it!' The boy smiled for the first time in a long time and walked out the door a changed person; he was never the same again. Whenever anybody asked him, 'Who's your daddy?' he'd just tell them, 'I'm a Child of GOD.'"

The distinguished gentleman got up from the table and said, "Isn't that a great story?" The professor agreed wholeheartedly! As the man turned to leave, he said, "You know, if that new preacher hadn't told me that I was one of GOD's children, I probably never would have amounted to anything!" And he walked away. The seminary professor and his wife were stunned. He called the waitress over and asked her, "Do you know who that man was that who was sitting at our table?" The waitress grinned and said, "Of course; everybody here knows him...that's Ben Hooper. He's governor of Tennessee!" TRUE STORY, FOLKS! Someone in your life today could use a reminder that they're one of GOD's Children! "Behold what manner of love the Father has lavished upon us that we should be called Children of GOD!" (I John 3:1)
