

Think Before You Speak...

- T = is it truthful?
- H - is it helpful?
- I - is it inspirational or important?
- N - is it necessary?
- K - is it kind?

“And now Dear Brothers and Sister, think about whatever is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me - everything you heard from me and saw me doing...and may the GOD of peace will be with you.”
(Philippians 4:8-9)

GOD'S GOODNESS!
 by Barbara Carmack

What? Are you calling it quits? Are you throwing in the towel? You’re going to miss the best part if you quit now - are you willing to give it all up over a skirmish lost? When I look back over my life, I realize that if I’d given up, I would’ve lost out on the very best that GOD has for me. I know that the enemy tries to tell us that the game’s over...we’re done for; but, Friend, “the best is yet to be!” I was singing a wonderful, old song the other day,

“Some through the water, some through the flood,
 Some through the fire, but all through the blood;
 Some through great sorrow, but GOD gives a song,
 In the night season and all the day long!”

“Some through the water....” - I thought of the times growing up on the farm, when a years’ worth of planting and toiling would come to an abrupt end in a rain storm climaxed with devastating hail!

“Some through the flood....” - I remember the times driving from one concert to another, not being able to see the road because of the downpour in Missouri or the blizzard along I-80 in Wyoming.

“Some through the fire....” - And then there was that time when we were beginning a good life with our little two-year-old daughter, and a fire destroyed our home (no insurance, but GOD helped us pay off that home we had lost, in 5 years!) We serve a great GOD!

“Some through great sorrow....” - Sorrow comes to all of us in different shaped packages. It’s been 33 years last month that my Dad went to be with the LORD, due to medical malpractice, and it’s been 28 years in February that my husband, John, transferred his citizenship. Derin left in 2009...the sorrow and grief have been great, but when I think that JESUS carried our grief and our sorrow on the cross, “Surely our griefs He bore and our sorrows He carried....” (Isaiah 53:4), a deep sense of Joy wells up in my soul - our Savior knows what it feels like to be in great sorrow and triumph over it!

“But all through the Blood!...” - Just think of all that JESUS has done for you.... All of the past with its hard times and unexpected detours and the sorrow that came to slam-dunk you into discouragement; all of that does not add up to what JESUS did for you. JESUS’ Blood, His precious Blood, covers every dark cloud in your life, every attack of the enemy, every situation that you encounter in your life. His Blood covers it all and gives you a sense of divine satisfaction that all is well with your soul! So, “Why should I feel discouraged? Why should the shadows come? Why should my heart be lonely and long for heaven and home - when JESUS is my portion - my constant Friend is He! His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me! I sing because I’m happy! I sing because I’m free! For His eye is on the sparrow and I know He watches me!”

“His ways are faithful: They will be REST to you;
 His ways are good! They will be JOY to you;
 His ways are right! They will be WISDOM to you;
 His ways are sure! They will be STRENGTH to you;
 His ways are best! They will be BLESSINGS TO YOU!”

Making America Great Again! A Report From Hal Lindsey:

“Compared to what Donald Trump is facing, Richard Nixon had it easy! Boy, I sure got that one right! Why are people so upset with President Trump? Sure, he rubs some people the wrong way. He says unexpected and, sometimes, inappropriate things. He speaks - or tweets - when maybe he should stay silent. But when you look beyond his bluster and just look at his actions and record, he's mostly a moderate, right-of-center politician...not at all out of the mainstream. I think the real reason so many people are obsessed with destroying President Trump can be found in his resistance to the New World Order.

In 2017, he refused to recertify the Iran nuclear deal. He formally recognized Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. He pulled the United States out of the Paris Climate Accord. He's renegotiating NAFTA. He put an end to the Trans-Pacific Partnership. He demanded that NATO members pay their own way. He called the United Nations to account and cut some of its funding. He got tough with the Palestinian Authority. He put the Muslim nations on notice that it's their responsibility to confront and curb Islamic terrorism, the economy is booming...and more. In other words, he stood up to and fought the globalist elites who were on the brink of cementing their supra-national control of the entire world. And, believe it or not, by doing that and by seeking to return autonomy and sovereignty to the United States - and bring Judeo-Christian values back to the public square - President Trump may have complicated the build-up to the antichrist's one-world government. And doing that guarantees him some terribly powerful enemies, including satan himself. That's why, in 2018, it is so critical that all Believers follow Paul's admonition: “I urge that entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men, for kings and all who are in authority, in order that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.” (1 Tim.othy 2:1-2) Article submitted by Tom Dunn

Say to Wisdom "You are my Sister" ... and to Understanding, "You are my intimate Friend!"
(Proverbs 7:4)

"The Warrior"

There are Great Similarities between Jehu, King of Israel and President Donald J. Trump; Jonathan Cahn explains it in “The Paradigm”: In II Kings 9, there were two nations in one - the first was representing the house of Ahab, the worshipers of Baal, and the majority who simply went along with the apostasy. The second was represented by the prophets and those who had remained true to GOD and His Word. They were in the minority, but they were praying for a national return to GOD...a Revival!

In America, from 2009 there has been two nations in one - the first representing the liberal left, the worshipers of abortion, and the majority who simply went along with the apostasy. The second was represented by the faithful who worship GOD and remain true to His Word. They are in the minority, but they are praying for a national return to GOD...a Revival!

Jehu was not from a kingly heritage...he was not in line to the throne; he was an “outsider”, as was Donald Trump. He did not exemplify the qualities one might have expected of a godly man. He could be boastful and given to self-promotion. He could be reckless and at times appear to be out of control. He could act rashly, impulsively, and in apparent disregard of the consequences of his actions. On the other hand, he would speak of having “a zeal for GOD!” (II Kings 10:16) The same could be said for Donald Trump, who was also a man of great extremes and a multitude of contradictions; he defied analysis and destroyed conventions...and yet you cannot deny, as was Jehu, Donald Trump is a “Chosen Vessel” of GOD for these times...just ask Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu!

THE NAIL IN THE FENCE...

There once was a little boy who had a bad temper. His father gave him a bag of nails and told him that every time he lost his temper, he must hammer a nail into the back of the fence. The first day, the boy had driven 37 nails into the fence. Over the next few weeks, as he learned to control his anger, the number of nails hammered daily gradually dwindled down. He discovered it was easier to hold his temper than to drive those nails into the fence. Finally the day came when the boy didn't lose his temper at all. He told his father about it and the father suggested that the boy now pull out one nail for each day that he was able to hold his temper. The days passed and the young boy was finally able to tell his father that all the nails were gone. The father took his son by the hand and, as he led him to the fence, he said, “You have done well, Son, but look at the holes in the fence. The fence will never be the same. When you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like this one. You can put a knife in a man and draw it out; it won't matter how many times you say, ‘I'm sorry’, the wound is still there.”

A verbal wound is as bad as a physical one. Friends are very rare jewels, indeed! They make you smile and encourage you to succeed. They lend an ear; they share words of praise, and they always want to open their hearts to us. Friends are like a refreshing wind that comes into your dominion and lifts you up and helps you walk on the high places of your life.

It's time that we acknowledge friends and let them know that they are blessings and we can't do without them in this life. Show a friend that you care by taking them to lunch or dinner. Write a note of thankfulness to your friend. Let them know by giving them something they appreciate...there's no better time to do it...so do it...NOW!

“A friend loves at all times....” (Proverbs 17:17) Even if you have only a very few “friends” be thankful because a friend is to be cherished...and loved. If you only have a few “likes” on Facebook, be grateful, because when the chips fall, they will all run...but a friend that you have in your life is worth thousands of “likes” on Facebook!

Home Of Refuge Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

EXCITING TIMES AHEAD! It's just a bare plot of land right now, but soon it will be buzzing with activity and the anticipation of people coming together from the community to praise the LORD and hear from the Word of GOD. Rosa and I are so grateful for the LORD's hand in what is happening here in Peru! Peoples' hearts are hungry for the Word of GOD...and we believe that as they give their lives to Christ JESUS, that much fruit will come from our efforts.

I want to tell you that it is your generous giving toward the chapel that got the ball rolling...your giving when there was nothing in reality, only a hope of GOD blessing our labor here. And then your giving became a reality as we see the large earth movers coming in and digging down for the foundation of the chapel that is going to be built because of your Faith in our work here in Peru.

We are praying that Holy Spirit will touch your hearts and that you are realizing the calling that JESUS gave His disciples in Matthew 28:19, “Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.” May we go forth making disciples!

We love you and feel the love that you have for the Home of Refuge and Rosa and me....
