"To The Glory Of GOD!"

by Barbara Carmack

Johann Sebastian Bach was born on March 21, 1685. He is considered the father of classical music, and in the opinion of many, the greatest musician ever to have lived. But he not only wrote and played music excellently, he also sought to glorify GOD in all he did. For over three centuries now, Bach's music has taken people beyond themselves and toward GOD. In addition to composing music, Bach also fulfilled countless other responsibilities. He raised a large family and taught music on a regular basis. He served as a church musician as well as conductor for the church choir and orchestra. He also fulfilled an obligation to compose new music for every Sunday. He regarded himself as a conscientious craftsman, not the gifted musician that we see him as today. He endeavored to do a job to the best of his ability for his supervisor's satisfaction, for others' pleasure and edification, and above all, for GOD's Glory!

Many historians have noted, Bach wrote notations such as "S.D.G." (Soli Deo Gloria), meaning "Solely to the Glory of GOD" or "I.N.J." (In Nomine JESU), meaning "In the Name of JESUS," on his manuscripts, as well as "Behold! The Lamb of GOD" (John 1:29). In his music, Bach honored the Lamb of GOD Who had taken away his sin and given him the Peace and Joy that pervaded his life...the Lamb of GOD to Whom he ascribed ALL GLORY and to whom he appealed every day of his life. According to Bach, music was worship, and he told his music pupils that unless they committed their talents to the LORD JESUS Christ they'd never become great musicians. J.S. Bach did not live for fame or fortune; he was a humble man who lived for GOD's Glory: "Where there is devotional music, GOD is always at hand with His gracious Presence." J.S. Bach

There are many Believers who don't think they are qualified to do much of anything for the LORD...and that's one of the ploys of the enemy. Abraham and Sarah didn't think they were qualified to give birth to a son, but they believed and glorified GOD (Romans 4:20)...and because of their Faith, the nation of Israel is a strong, GOD-believing nation today. Moses didn't think he was qualified to stand before Pharaoh and say, "Let GOD's people go!" - but GOD delivered every one of those enslaved people and eventually brought them to their Promised Land.

Gideon didn't think he was qualified to defeat the Midianites, but with 300 loyal men, some pitchers and torches, they routed an army of millions. Jesse and his seven sons couldn't believe that David, the youngest son, was qualified to become king, but he was anointed by Samuel and achieved the position of King of Israel. When JESUS came, He was called the Son of David (Matthew 15:22, Matthew 20:30; Matthew 22:42). King David was, "a man after GOD's own heart."

Saul of Tarsus couldn't imagine he was qualified to become an Apostle of the Messiah he had been persecuting...but he became an Apostle and Teacher to the Gentiles, and we have much of the New Testament written by Paul, who gave GOD the Glory, much like Bach.

What is impossible for man is always possible with GOD regardless of your personal profile...GOD has qualified you to serve Him. GOD is at work in you to accomplish His good purposes! (See the bottom of page 4)

Making America Great Again!

President Donald Trump is demanding a return to the Constitution and rule of law. He is demanding that America honor and accept election outcomes because without acceptance there is only civil war to determine who runs the country. The leftist-socialist Democrat party is the hypocritical party of feelings; they only accept election outcomes if their preferred candidate wins. Only their own feelings matter!

Those of us who did not like or vote for Barack Obama accepted the 2008 and 2012 election outcomes. Because we are Americans first we accepted Obama's victory regardless of our personal feelings. We did not "resist" and leaders of the opposition party did not participate in a coup to overthrow him. We waited until 2016 and cast our votes for President Donald J. Trump - the duly elected 45th president of the United States of America.

America is at a tipping point - if we allow the FEELINGS of the left to supersede the rule of law, the country will tilt further toward anarchy and there will be civil war. Feelings define identity politics: identity politics is a movement of people who identify with a particular religion, race, social background, etc., to form exclusive political alliances, moving away from traditional broad-based party politics. Identity politics are the foundation of today's leftist Democrat party. What they do not tolerate is anyone who thinks differently; feeling like a victim defines you as a victim. What binds these disparate groups together is their hatred for President Trump and refusal to accept the 2016 presidential election outcome. They do not accept President Trump as their president because they don't like him and since their feelings are more important than facts, they behave as if he is not president; they are participating in a countdown to civil war!

Sneaking into a country does not make you an immigrant, just as breaking into a house doesn't make you a homeowner!

"But Thanks be to GOD, Who gives us the victory Through our LORD JESUS Christ!"
I Corinthians 15:57

WHY? The Answer To So Many WHYs:

Article submitted by Kathy Grosser

- Why do drug stores make the sick walk all the way to the back of the store to get their prescriptions while healthy people can buy cigarettes at the front? Why do you leave cars worth thousands of dollars in your driveways and put your useless junk in the garage?
- EVER WONDER...Why lemon juice is made with artificial flavoring, and dish washing liquid made with real lemons?
- Why the sun lightens your hair, but darkens your skin? Why women can't put on mascara with their mouth closed?
- Why people order double cheeseburgers, large fries, and a diet coke?
- Why you don't ever see the headline "Psychic Wins Lottery"?
- Why "abbreviated" is such a long word?
- Why doctors and attorneys call what they do "practice"?
- Why the man who invests all your money is called a "broker"?
- Why the time of day with the slowest traffic is called "rush hour"?
- Why there isn't mouse-flavored cat food?
- Why Noah didn't swat those two mosquitoes? Why sheep don't shrink when it rains (wool...get it)?
- You know that indestructible black box that is used on airplanes? Why don't they make the whole plane out of that stuff?? If flying is so safe, why do they call the airport the "terminal"?
- Why are they called apartments when they are all stuck together? Now that you've smiled at least once, and maybe even chuckled, you've made my day...and I hope I've made your day a little more enjoyable! We all need to smile more often...and make someone's day. Blessings!

THE OIL PATCH WARRIORS OF WORLD WAR II

Story submitted by Mark Trevithick

Seventy-five years ago this month, a Band of Roughnecks went abroad on a top secret mission into Robin Hood's stomping grounds to punch oil wells to help fuel England's war machine. The year was 1943 and England was mired in World War II. U-boats attacked supply vessels, choking off badly needed supplies to the island nation. But oil was the commodity they needed the most as they warred with Germany. England had but one oil field, in Sherwood Forest of all places. Its meager output of 300 barrels a day was literally a drop in the bucket of their requirement of 150,000 barrels a day to fuel their war machines. Then a top secret plan was devised: To send some Americans and their expertise to assist in developing the field. Oklahoma-based Noble Drilling Company, along with Fain-Porter, signed a one-year contract to drill 100 wells for England, merely for costs and expenses. Forty-two drillers and roughnecks from Texas and Oklahoma, most in their teens and early twenties volunteered for the mission to go abroad. The Americans embarked for England in March 1943 aboard the HMS Queen Elizabeth. Four National 50 drilling rigs were loaded on to ships but only three of them made landfall; the Nazi U-boats sank one of the rigs en route to the UK. The Brits' jaws dropped as the Yanks began punching the wells in a week, compared to five to eight weeks for their British counterparts. Working 12-hour shifts, 7-days a week, within a year the Americans had drilled 106 wells and England oil production shot up from 300 barrels a day to over 300,000! The contract fulfilled, the American oil men departed England in late March 1944 with only 41 hands on board for the return voyage. Herman Donthit, a Texan derrick-hand was killed during the operation. He was laid to rest with full military honors, and remains the only civilian to be buried at the American Military Cemetery in Cambridge, England. "The Oil Patch Warrior," a seven-foot bronze statue of a roughneck holding a four-foot pipe wrench stands near Nottingham, England to honor the American oil men's assistance and sacrifice in the war. A replica was placed in Ardmore, Oklahoma in 2001. It is by no means a stretch to state that without the American mission, we might all be speaking German today.

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Tony and Rosa are not only climbing new heights in the spiritual realm, they're having to get acclimated to the altitude of Peru in the physical; cooking takes so much longer. Look at these photos of the church in Cardompata... it seems like everyone is intent on reading the Word of GOD! This is one of the greatest delights of the Father...to see His children hungering and thirsting for His Word.

As Tony and Rosa bring the Word to these hungry hearts, they are soaking up all that is being taught. Every Sunday and Wednesday there are over 60 people attending the services to learn all they can about GOD's Love. They want to grow...the young and old alike. If only people in the United States were that receptive!

We pray that Holy Spirit will touch your hearts to let you realize that you are a BIG part of what's going on in Peru, and that you are realizing the calling that JESUS gave His disciples in Matthew 28:19, "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." May we go forth making disciples! Tony and Rosa are doing their part in making disciples... are you doing your part?
