

Enjoy every day GOD made for you... (Email submitted by Tom Dunn)

Lisa Beamer, the wife of Todd Beamer, who said 'Let's Roll!' and helped take down the plane over Pennsylvania that was heading for Washington, DC back on 9/11, said "It's the little things that I miss about Todd...hearing the garage door open as he came home, and his children running to meet him." She recalled this story from high school: "I had a very special teacher, years ago whose husband died suddenly of a heart attack. About a week after his death, she shared some of her insight with a classroom of students. As the late afternoon sunlight came streaming in through the classroom windows and the class was nearly over, she moved a few things aside on the edge of her desk and sat down there. With a gentle look of reflection on her face, she paused and said, 'Class is over; I would like to share with all of you a thought that is unrelated to class, but which is very important... Each of us is put here on earth to learn, share, love, appreciate and give of ourselves. None of us knows when this fantastic experience will end. It can be taken away at any moment. Perhaps this is GOD's way of telling us that we must make the most out of every single day.'

Her eyes, beginning to water, she went on. 'So I would like you all to make me a promise. From now on, on your way to school, or on your way home, find something beautiful to notice. It doesn't have to be something you see...it could be a scent, perhaps of freshly baked bread wafting out of someone's house, or it could be the sound of the breeze slightly rustling the leaves in the trees, or the way the morning light catches one autumn leaf as it falls gently to the ground. Please look for these things, and cherish them. For, although it may sound trite to some, these things are the 'stuff' of life...the little things we are put here on earth to enjoy. The things we often take for granted.'

A mother's love is greater than any other human emotion, and you have probably had the experience of a mother's love if you've been blessed by being given a woman with the divine capacity to love as JESUS loved. Or you may be one of those who has not had a loving mother, but JESUS' Love is big enough to fill that void!

There are many examples of mothers in the Bible who showed JESUS' Love no matter what the circumstances; there is Moses' mother, Jochebed, who loved her newborn son so much that she hid him in a basket made of reeds; and there's Hannah who loved her son Samuel and gave him up to do the LORD's work to become one of the outstanding prophets of the Old Testament. There's the love between Naomi and her daughter-in-law, Ruth that exhibits the Agape Love that GOD shows His beloved children. But probably the greatest example of a mother's love for her child is shown through the life of Mary, who gave birth to Christ JESUS.

Here is a twist on a love story between two mothers and their love and affection for their sons - bound together by an unusual set of circumstances:

The Two Mothers

Long, long ago...so I have been told, two saints once met on the streets paved with gold. "By the stars in your crown," said the one to the other, "I see that on earth you too were a mother; and by the blue-tinted halo you wear, you too, have known sorrow and deepest despair."
 "Ah yes," came the answer, "I once had a son...a sweet little lad, full of laughter and fun. But tell of your child."
 "Oh, I knew I was blest...from the moment I first held Him close to my breast; and my heart almost burst with the Joy of the day!"
 "Ah, yes," sighed the other, "I felt the same way."
 The former continued, "The first steps He took...so eager and breathless, the sweet startled look which came over His face - He trusted me so."
 "Ah yes," sighed the other. "How well do I know!"
 "But soon He had grown to a tall handsome Boy, so stalwart and kind, and it gave me such Joy to have Him just walk down the street by my side."
 "Ah, yes," said the other, "I felt the same pride."
 "How often I shielded and spared Him from pain; and when He for others was so cruelly slain, when they crucified Him, and they spat in His face, how gladly would I have hung there in His place!"

A moment of silence - "Oh, then you are she...the mother of Christ," and she fell on one knee. But the blessed one raised her up, drawing her near, and kissed from the cheek of the woman a tear. "Tell me the name of the son you loved so, that I may share with you your grief and your woe."

She lifted her eyes, looking straight at the other... "He was Judas Iscariot, I am his mother." (Richard Maxwell)

As you juggle your physical life with your spiritual life, may you know what are the important things in life. Life isn't in the possessions you accumulate, although GOD wants you blessed in those too. But the vital thing is to know that your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life: "Your life does not consist, is not measured by what you own...for not even when one has an abundance does his life consist of his possessions!" (Luke 12:15)

The Bible In The News...

The President Is NOT Above the Law!

Mr. Obama has said himself, at least 22 times, that he cannot make the laws...that is not the responsibility of the President; it is the responsibility of the Legislative Branch - the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Mr. Obama has said, and rightly so, "We've got a government designed by the founders so that there'd be checks and balances. You don't want a President who's too powerful....Congress's job is to pass legislation; the President can veto it or he can sign it." (5/19/12)

And then in February of 2013 this is what he said, "I'm the President of the United States. I'm not the emperor of the United States. My job is to execute laws that are passed by Congress. I know some here wish that I could just bypass Congress and change the law myself. But that's not how democracy works!" And then just last year, he gave this statement: "I think that it is very important for us to recognize that the way to solve this problem has to be Legislative....Until Congress passes a new law, then I am constrained in terms of what I am able to do....Congress said, 'You, Mr. President, have to enforce these laws.' I cannot ignore those laws any more than I could ignore, you know, any of the other laws that are on the books." And then he took action and changed the law. (Nov. 25, 2014)

If you've listened to this man for any length of time, you realize that he is speaking out of both sides of his mouth. With his final election campaign behind him, Mr. Obama abruptly did an unconstitutional about-face...changing the very laws he had repeatedly declared himself unauthorized to change!

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem!

"The Deliverer will come from Zion; He will remove ungodliness from Jacob! And this is My Covenant with them....when I take away their sins!" (Isaiah 59:21)

"...AND ALL ISRAEL WILL BE SAVED!" (Romans 11:26)

On Holocaust Day in Israel, April 8, at 10:00AM everything comes to a halt including the traffic on the interstate highways and roads, to remember the 6,000,000 Jews who died in WWII.

Heavenly Father, The Psalmist, David, tells us to "pray for the peace of JerUSAlem." (Psalm 122:6) So, I pray for peace for Your chosen people, Israel, and their beloved city today. You have planned for Israel (JEHOVAH OLAM - Everlasting GOD), provided for Israel (JEHOVAH JIREH - The LORD My Provider), and protected Your very own possession, Israel (JEHOVAH NISSI - My Banner of Victory), for thousands of years. But as in the days of old, there are those today who seek to harm, even destroy Your people. So, I ask You to keep Israel in Your loving care. Put a spiritual hedge of protection around Your people and their land. Watch over this nation as a Good Shepherd watches over his flock, and may Your chosen people find their ultimate safety and security in You. While You watch over Your people, may Holy Spirit awaken in them a hunger to embrace their Messiah - the One Who died for them - until they see Him (Yeshua) face to face! We pray this in JESUS' Name, Amen.

You may pray this prayer for the United States of America as well, praying that all those who will come to know JESUS as their Prayer for Israel by David Jeremiah Ministries

I Survived Hitler..

By Kitty Werthman

In The Sound of Music, the Von Trapp family escaped over the Alps rather than submit to the Nazis. Kitty chose to stay in her native Austria, and she admits that her family and friends and most of the country voted for Hitler by 98%! Kitty says, "Everyone thinks Hitler just rolled in with his tanks and took Austria by force. Hitler was welcomed by the Austrian people because Austria was deep in depression with 25% inflation and 25% bank interest rates - people declaring bankruptcy, and going door to door begging for food. We looked to our neighbor to the north - Germany - and they had a high standard of living, and crime and unemployment were down:

"We were led to believe that everyone in Germany was happy. We wanted that kind of life in Austria, so we annexed our country to Germany. We were overjoyed; people were dancing in the streets and holding candlelight celebrations, and four weeks later everyone was employed, and all women had equal rights.

Then when I went to school, there was a picture of Hitler that replaced the crucifix on the wall, and our flag was replaced by a Nazi flag. We learned very quickly that everything was directed toward learning about the Nazi way of life, and there was no more praying or religion taught in the classroom. Everything was very regimented and we went through rigorous physical education, which replaced the learning we were used to.

When war broke out in 1939, food was rationed and could only be purchased with food stamps; if you didn't work, you didn't get a ration card, which meant food stamps. When mothers had to go into the work force, the government child care centers indoctrinated our little ones to the Nazi way of life - a whole generation of Nazi children. Healthcare was socialized and free for everyone, and doctors were salaried by the government. Since healthcare was free, the people were going to the doctors for everything imaginable. The good doctors were swamped, and the hospitals were full. If you needed elective surgery, you could wait for a year or two, so, the best doctors left Austria and emigrated to other countries.

Totalitarianism didn't come quickly; it took five years (1938-1943) to realize full dictatorship in Austria. Had it happened overnight, my countrymen would have fought to the last breath! Instead, we had 'creeping gradualism.' The whole idea sounds unbelievable...that the Nazis, little by little eroded our freedom!"

Is this happening all over again?

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

I just returned from Santa Maria Children's Home where the chicken farm is progressing very well, and we have purchased the 2nd batch of 300 chicks! Few things in life are as beautiful to my eyes as watching children who once knew only hopelessness and the nagging ache of hunger now joyfully eating regular, hot, healthy meals...with chickens from their own back yard! This is being made possible by your giving...thank you for caring and sharing!

We are delighted to announce that two new boys have been added to the Santa Maria Children's Home, bringing the total to 69. Luis Fernando, 12 years old, was found wandering the streets of Lima in January of this year. He had infected wounds and lice and was desperate for help. Luis was brought to the orphanage from the police dept. where he is eager to learn. He received a backpack and a new pair of shoes - a dream come true.

The home does have a pressing need and that's for a freezer to store chickens that have been butchered for their food. Right now the staff is forced to harvest only the birds that will be eaten that day...while the most efficient way is to freeze the chickens until they are needed for the meals. Please consider what you can give to purchase a freezer for the children.

Eternally grateful, Tony & Rosa Rivera - Homes of Refuge - Peru
