

"His Eye Is On the Sparrow..."

(email by Terri Michel)

1. A female Bluebird was hit by a car; her condition was very serious.

3. When he brought her food again, he was shocked to find her dead...he tried to move her...

4. Aware his mate was dead, he cried out with adoring love and sorrow, standing beside her as the photographer took these poignant photos....

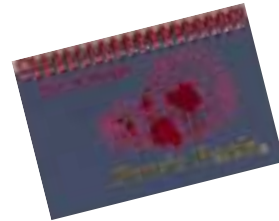

2. Her mate brought her food, attending to her with love and compassion...

As these photos depict the love and sorrow felt by one of GOD's creatures, imagine how much more He cares for you!...Live Simply, Love Generously, Care Deeply, and Give Fully!

"A Thankful Place"

by Jerry Becker

Faithful Pow'r Partners, Jerry and Carol Becker, had an amazing encounter with GOD at a very thankful place in their lives; thank you, Jerry and Carol for recognizing GOD's touch in your lives: "Carol and I were driving back to northern Illinois to attend my mother's funeral. We stopped in Ogallala, Nebraska at a McDonalds, to get some food along with two servings of their iced coffee, which comes in tall glasses with tall straws. After eating my breakfast biscuit and drinking my iced coffee, I used a tooth pick to clean my teeth. When I was finished, I just dropped the tooth pick down the straw of my empty coffee cup. About a hundred miles down the road, Carol reminded me that I didn't take my blood pressure medicine, which I'm supposed to take with food. She got me the two pills which I promptly popped in my mouth. I reached for Carol's iced coffee to wash them down but it was empty. She handed me mine, and this is the funny part because I knew that used tooth pick was in the straw, but I felt it would bump against the roof of my mouth and it would be no problem. I sucked the melted ice that was in the bottom of the cup and it felt like the pills didn't go all the way down. Carol then found a water bottle and I took a big swig out of that and then realized I had swallowed the tooth pick and it was stuck in my esophagus. Here we were in the middle of nowhere and the thought just went through my mind: 'I'm on my way to bury my mother and I could be dead in 4 or 5 minutes!' It was then that Carol said, 'Let's pray.' I tried not to swallow as I didn't want to do anything that would further lodge the toothpick in my lower esophagus. It didn't take long not swallowing before the buildup of saliva forced me to. As I tried to swallow, I was forced to cough and it appeared that the cough loosened the tooth pick, and it seemed that it wasn't crossways in my throat any longer.

Since that threat had passed, I was thinking I may not want to try and eat anything until I was at my destination with a hospital close by, in case the food knocked it against the wall of my esophagus (hello reason!), and that thought would come back to me again. We got off at the next rest stop, and as I was walking to the facilities building I heard the LORD say, 'I want you to get on your knees and give Me thanks'. I went around to the back of the building and did just that. At the end of my prayer and thanks to GOD, walking back to the car, I heard the LORD say, 'Now eat something'. When we got into the car, I told Carol what had happened, so we tore into some M&M peanuts and they went down with no problem. After more praise and giving thanks to GOD, we got back on I-80. A few miles down the road I looked at Carol and she was crying, which usually means the LORD was telling her something. This is what He had to say to her: 'I have saved you for My purpose. My plan for you is greater than you can think or imagine. You are in My thoughts and I long to be with you, to be your GOD. I want to spend time with you.' What an awesome GOD we serve!"

The Bible In The News...

DAVID BARTON - the founder and president of WallBuilders, a national pro-family organization that presents America's forgotten history and heroes, with an emphasis on our moral, religious and constitutional heritage. His exhaustive research has rendered him an expert in historical and constitutional issues, and he serves as a consultant to state and federal legislators, even participating in several cases before the Supreme Court. Time Magazine called him "a hero to millions."

No official government document by the founding fathers refers to separation of church and state:

"Some misguided people try to claim that this quote from Thomas Jefferson establishes the 'separation of church and state' that we now have today: 'Believing with you that religion is a matter which lies solely between man and his GOD - that he owes account to none other for his faith or his worship - that the legislative powers of government reach actions only and not opinions, I contemplate, with sovereign reverence, that act of the whole American people which declared that their legislature should make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, thus building a wall of separation between church and state,' Jefferson's intent was the complete opposite of what we have today - that the government CANNOT REGULATE our freedom of worship in this country - that the church was to be protected from the government, not the reverse!"

Mr. Barton explains that the words 'separation of church and state' don't appear in any official government documents authored by the founding fathers. This concept was invented by the ACLU in 1947 in a case which was presented by the Supreme Court and passed in a 5 to 4 decision.

David tells groups, that tour the United States Capitol, that the First Continental Congress recommended the Bible as primary reading for all the school-age children. He also explains that the rotunda of the U.S. Capitol was used for the first church services, and the Marine Corp Band led in worship on Sunday mornings until 1867.

Praise GOD for citizens and leaders who hold up the banner of truth and stand strong against tyranny!

Heart Cries

and PRAISE REPORTS

ISRAEL UNDERSTANDS AMERICA'S GRIEF: Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu extended Israel's condolences to the families of U.S. Ambassador Chris Stevens and three other officials at the American embassy in Libya who were murdered in September by Islamic terrorists, "The people of Israel grieve with the American people. We send our condolences to the families." Netanyahu said in a statement posted on the Prime Minister's office website, "If there's any people in the world that understands what Americans are going through, what they went through on 9/11, it's the people of Israel, who've been standing at the forefront of the battle against terrorism, who've lost loved ones and who deeply sympathize with the people of America at this time."

"Pray for the peace of JerUSAlem."

Be sure to vote on November 6th - Andrew Jackson said, "You sin by your silence."

Upside-down Land...

Your Declaration of Independence is to vote - that's your personal duty as an American citizen: "Without a vision, the people perish!" Proverbs 29:18
Proverbs 11:11: "Upright citizens make a city prosper, but the talk of the wicked tears it apart!" Proverbs 11:14: "Without wise leadership, a nation falls; there is safety in having many wise advisers." Proverbs 29:2: "When the godly are in authority, the people rejoice, but when the wicked are in power, they groan!"

You know you live in an Upside-down land if...

- 1) You can get arrested for expired tags on your car, but not for being in this country illegally
- 2) Your government believes that the best way to eradicate trillions of dollars of debt is to spend trillions more of your money
- 3) The Supreme Court of the United States can rule that lower courts cannot display the 10 Commandments in their courtroom, while sitting in front of a display of the 10 Commandments on the Supreme Court wall
- 4) Working class Americans pay for their own health care (and the health care of everyone else) while unmarried women are free to have child after child on the "state's" dime while never being held responsible for their own choices
- 5) Hard work and success are rewarded with higher taxes and government intrusion, while slothful, lazy behavior is rewarded with EBT cards, WIC checks, Medicaid and subsidized housing
- 6) The government's plan for getting people back to work is to provide 99 weeks of unemployment checks (Do not work! This is their instruction for the people!)
- 7) The rights of the government come before the rights of the individual, 8) Parents believe the state is responsible for providing for their children, 9) You have to have your parents signature to go on a school field trip but not to get an abortion, 10) Politicians think that stripping away the amendments to the Constitution is protecting the rights of the people, 11) An 80-year-old woman is strip searched by the TSA but a Muslim woman in a burqu is only subject to having her neck and head searched

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

FELIZ DIA DE GRACIAS!

Rosa and I are so thankful at this time of year that we have been given the opportunity to hug children and love them with the hands of Jesus. We have learned that when the enemy comes in like a flood, the Lord lifts up a standard against him...Hallelujah! The children have tasted of GOD's goodness through your giving. One 12-year-old boy, William, was in critical need of medical attention after being bit by a spider, and your giving supplied for the cost of the doctors and the medicine needed to save his life. He spent a week and a half in the intensive care unit, and a total of two weeks in the hospital, but he is now home, doing well. Thank you for helping us to supply the needed $1,000.00 to care for him. We praise GOD for his recovery!

We are also able to repair all the windows of the orphanage, which the government required for the safety of the children. The $3,000.00 used for the cost of the windows was such a blessing to the orphanage and its directors. GOD continue to bless you for your generous and sacrificial giving.

Love, Tony & Rosa, Home of Refuge - Peru
