

The 'Green Thing'...

Checking out at the store, the young cashier suggested to the much older lady that she should bring her own grocery bags, because plastic bags are not good for the environment. The woman apologized to the young girl and explained, "We didn't have this 'green thing' back in my earlier days." The young clerk responded, "That's our problem today; your generation didn't care enough to save our environment for future generations." "Yes, we didn't have the 'green thing' in my day. Back then, we returned milk bottles, soda bottles to the stores. The bottles went back to the plant to be washed and sterilized and refilled, so they could be reused...so they really were recycled...but we didn't have the 'green thing' back in our day." The older lady continued, "Grocery stores bagged our groceries in brown paper bags that we reused for numerous things. When we sent packages, we didn't use Styrofoam or plastic bubble wrap; we used those brown paper bags. Back then, we didn't fire up an engine and burn gasoline just to cut the lawn; we used a push mower that ran on human power.

Back then we washed the baby's diapers because we didn't have the disposable kind. We dried clothes on a line, not in an energy-gobbling machine burning up 220 volts. In the kitchen, we beat and stirred by hand because we didn't have electric machines to do everything for us. Instead of using a plastic bottle every time we needed a drink, we drank from a fountain. We refilled writing pens with ink instead of buying new pens, and we replaced the razor blade in a razor instead of throwing away the whole razor. We had one electrical outlet in a room, not an entire bank of sockets to power a dozen appliances. And we didn't need a computerized gadget that received a signal from satellites 23,000 miles out in space in order to find the nearest burger joint. But isn't it sad the current generation laments how wasteful we old folks were just because we didn't have the 'green thing' back then?"

NOVEMBER 2018 - Volume 23, Issue 11

"THANKSGIVING All Year Long!"

by Barbara Carmack

As you read GOD's Word, may you remember to Thank Him for all the good Promises He's given to you. Just one Promise that confirms that GOD is El Shaddai - "The GOD Who is More-than-Enough" is found in Psalm 91 - the writer is prophesying GOD's Words over himself: "Because he has set his love upon Me (remember, this is the LORD speaking), therefore I will deliver him, I will set him on high, because he has known My Name; he shall call upon Me, and I will answer him, I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him; with long life will I satisfy him, and show him My Salvation."

There is a verse in John 14 that tells you how much GOD wants to bless you and shield you, keep you safe, and give you what you are asking for: "...and whatever you ASK, in My Name, that will I do that the Father may be glorified in the Son...if you ASK Me anything, in My Name, I will do it!" (John 14:13-14) Now there isn't anything in English that can give you the strong meaning of this verse, but here is what it says literally, "If you will ask anything in My Name...if I don't have it...I'll make it for you!" Do you like that? Now, let's get back to Psalm 91:14-16. GOD wants you to know how much He loves YOU...(1) "I will deliver you out of any situation"...through the Blood of JESUS: "I can do ALL THINGS through Christ Who strengthens me!" (Philippians 4:13)

GOD says in 91:14, (2) "I will set you securely on high because you have known My Name." You know that Name that is above every name.... Call on Him - El Shaddai - the One Who created the whole universe for you! (3) GOD's Promise in 91:15: "When you call upon Me, I will answer you." When you call upon GOD and pray to Him, He will answer you. Say with me: "GOD hears and answers my prayers." Remind GOD of His Promises.... Remind Him of His Word! He loves to hear His Word spoken to Him: "This is the confidence I have before Him, that if I ASK anything according to His will, He hears me...and if I KNOW that He hears me, I know I have those things I have asked of Him!" (1 John 5:14-15)

(4) Psalm 91:15 goes on to say: "I will be with you in trouble; I will deliver you"...not just in the good times, Friend, but in the bad times, in the midnight of your life...in your darkest hour; He can handle anything that harasses or disturbs you in any way. The last part of Psalm 91:15b says

(5) "I will rescue you and honor you!" This verse is GOD talking about YOU - GOD will honor the one who has set his love of GOD! GOD will honor the humble in heart...He wants to fellowship with you...He wants you to know that He loves your company! (6) "With long life will I satisfy him...and (7) show him My Salvation!" Long life doesn't mean that you're going to strive to get into the Guinness Book of World Records for being the oldest human on earth. No! Paul didn't live a long life...but what a life he lived! Be thankful for the quality of life you have in Christ JESUS and that you're able to comprehend with your Brothers and Sisters "...what is the breadth and length and height and depth and to know the Love of Christ, being filled up to all the fullness of GOD!" (Ephesians 3:18-19)

"You Can't Lose!"

Making America Great Again! Thanksgiving U.S.A.

In his Proclamation of October 20, 1864, establishing a national day of Thanksgiving, President Lincoln opened with "It has pleased Almighty GOD to prolong our national life another year..." It had been a year of terrible losses, including those at Cold Harbor and Petersburg. Yet there was a feeling that a corner had been turned with Lieutenant General Grant leading Union troops who had advanced despite the losses. Along with General Grant, General Sherman drove his army to the Atlantic, winning one battle after another. It was a sad era for America...and there are still feelings of divisiveness today; however, our great national struggle from 1861-64 must offer some solace.

It reminds us that America has survived great struggles before, and we will again. We will survive by focusing on what unifies us as Americans - selfless service, whether it be military service, duty as a first responder, or those who who count their fellow Americans as more important than themselves... simply proud to be Americans!

As Katharine Lee Bates wrote in the third stanza of "America the Beautiful" - "O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife; who more than self their country loved and mercy more than life! America, America, GOD shed His Grace on thee...and crowned thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea!" For Americans who put service before self - "who more than self their country loved" - we honor and give thanks for you, especially this week, Thanksgiving for all those who have sacrificed so we can enjoy the first Amendment - freedom of religion...what Almighty GOD had ordained!

Sherman's March To the Sea

"A family altar can alter a family!"

Dear Lord

I pray, please bless my family, friends and loved ones with Your love and protect them from harm. Give them grace to forgive, strength to overcome all the difficulties they face and keep them together when the world tries to pull them apart.
Thank You Lord. Amen.

The Ant And the Grasshopper

Submitted by Jon Sheppard

OLD VERSION - The ant works hard in the withering heat all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter. The grasshopper thinks the ant is a fool, and laughs and dances and plays the summer away. Come winter, the ant is warm and well fed; the grasshopper has no food or shelter, so he dies out in the cold.

Moral of the old story: Be responsible and live!

MODERN VERSION - The ant works hard in the withering heat and the rain all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter. The grasshopper thinks the ant is a fool, and laughs and dances and plays the summer away. Come winter, the shivering grasshopper calls a press conference and demands to know why the ant should be allowed to be warm and well fed while he is cold and starving. CBS, NBC, CNN and ABC show up to take pictures of the shivering grasshopper with a video of the ant in his comfortable home with a table filled with food. America is stunned by the sharp contrast! How can this be, that in a country of such wealth, this poor grasshopper is allowed to suffer so? Kermit the Frog appears on Oprah with the grasshopper, and everybody cries when they sing, "It's Not Easy Being Green..." Occupy the Anthill stages a protest in front of the ant's house where the news stations film Black Lives Matter singing, "We Shall Overcome." Then Reverend Sharpston has the group kneel down to pray for the grasshopper while he damns the ants, later appearing on MSNBC to complain that rich people do not care. Former Pres. Obama condemns the ant and blames Pres. Donald Trump, Pres. Bush 43, Pres. Bush 41, Pres. Reagan, Christopher Columbus, and the Pope for the grasshopper's plight. Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Schumer explain in an interview on The View that the ant has gotten rich off the back of the grasshopper, and both call for an immediate tax hike on the ant to make him pay his fair share. Finally, the EEOC drafts the Economic Equity and Anti-Grasshopper Act retroactive to the beginning of the summer. The ant is fined for failing to hire a proportionate number of green bugs, and having nothing left to pay his retroactive taxes, his home is confiscated by the Government Green Czar and given to the grasshopper. The story ends as the grasshopper and his free-loading friends finish up the last bits of the ant's food while the government house he is in - the ant's old house - crumbles around them because the grasshopper doesn't maintain it....the ant never to be seen again. The grasshopper is found dead in a drug-related incident, and the house, now abandoned, is taken over by a gang of spiders who terrorize the ramshackle, once, prosperous and peaceful neighborhood. The entire Nation collapses taking the rest of the free world with it.

Moral of the story: "BE CAREFUL HOW YOU VOTE ON NOVEMBER 6TH, BUT VOTE!"

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

We dedicated the chapel at Cardompata with 300 people attending. The chapel was packed as you can see in the photos. Several invited guests from the states shared from the Word of GOD, including members of our immediate family, and the service ended with an altar call...and many folks responded. We presented the JESUS MOVIE on a large screen for them to watch while they were enjoying refreshments. It was a day to remember!

This is your reward as you have been faithful and generous in your giving to Home of Refuge! But this is only the beginning for us in these mountains of Peru. Will you help us build a home for orphans and the elderly? The need for finances to begin constructing the orphanage is truly urgent...and you know that is my deep, deep heart cry...for the orphans of South America. We know that your heart is with us in this great opportunity to win souls for the Kingdom of GOD of this earth. Thank you, Thank you!

Love, Tony & Rosa, Home of Refuge, Peru
