Dreams Do Come True!

by Barbara Carmack

Do you have a dream that has yet to come true? Do you find yourself escaping at the strangest times to play and replay the deepest desire of your heart? As you replay your dream, you find yourself saying, "Maybe someday..." or "If only my dream would come true!" A "Common Thread" runs through each person who sees their dream come true. I'll get back to that later in this article....

I've heard many Believers say things like, "I want a career that will allow me time for volunteer work at my church," or "I want to work with orphans who need someone to love and care for them," or "I want to start a youth camp for kids in the mountains." When I consider their sincerity, I have to conclude...they would already be living their dream if human effort alone could make it happen. Most of these dreams are good, and the people who dream them are sincere, serving the LORD with diligence. I suggest we look at what GOD has to say about the dreams and aspirations of the heart:

"Delight thyself in the LORD and He will give you the desires of your heart!" (Psalm 37:4) You are always in GOD's thoughts and plans; He wants to see your dreams fulfilled! (Jeremiah 29:11)

So, are you ready to go for it? Are you ready to pay whatever price it takes for your dream to come true? "Yes, Barbara, I am tired of waiting; I must go forward...I cannot go back." The period of waiting may have weakened you, but Isaiah 40:29 says, "To him who lacks might, He increases Power!" This is just what you need to say right now - "LORD GOD, I need Power right now, and I receive it from you," and in saying that prayer, you find yourself becoming more excited about what GOD has planned for you. Now, as you replay your dream again, go to Deuteronomy 7:9, "Know therefore that the LORD, your GOD - He is GOD - the faithful GOD, Who keeps His Covenant of Love with you as He promised to a thousandth generation with those who love Him and keep His commandments!"

When you present the Promises of GOD BACK TO HIM and rely on the Promise that He is Faithful...the Faithful GOD, the combination of your Believing and GOD's Faithfulness will bring His Promises to pass in your situation. Your dream will become reality! He delights in you when you present your case before Him, using His Word, confessing it BACK TO HIM! That's what Abraham did; he continued to speak GOD's promises back to Him until they became reality in the birth of his son, Isaac; in essence, Abraham spoke his dream [of having a son] and his Faith-filled words became a reality.

As you repeat GOD's Promises over and over, you will get stronger and stronger...verses like I John 5:14-15, "This is the confidence I have before You, that if I ask anything, according to Your will, You hear me...and if I know that You hear me, I KNOW I have those requests which I have asked of You!" So, don't throw away your confidence for it has a great reward!

Confessing and Believing HIS WORD is DOING HIS WILL!

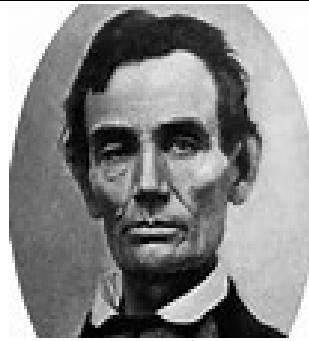

You are a winner! As you learn how faithful GOD is, you will have victory every time you come to Him. He wants you to win standing on His Word! Oh, and about that thread - that "Common Thread"...the thread I always see in winners is tenacity, a "never-say-die" attitude and paying the right price to see their dream come true. Winners find their dreams fulfilled in GOD's promises, like Romans 8:31,

"If GOD is for us, who can be against us?"

THANKSGIVING DAY

Abraham Lincoln

"It has pleased Almighty GOD to prolong our national life another year, defending us with His guardian care against unfriendly designs from abroad and vouchsafing to us in His mercy many victories over the enemy, who is of our own household (speaking of the Civil War). It has also pleased our Heavenly Father to favor as well our citizens in their homes as our soldiers in their camps and our sailors on the rivers and seas with unusual health. He has largely augmented our free population by emancipation and by immigration, while He has opened to us new sources of wealth and has crowned the labor of our workingmen in every department of industry with abundant rewards. Moreover, He has been pleased to animate and inspire our minds and hearts with fortitude, courage, and resolution sufficient for the great trial of civil war into which we have been brought by our adherence as a nation to the cause of freedom and humanity, and to afford to us reasonable hopes of an ultimate and happy deliverance from all our dangers and afflictions: Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart the last Thursday in November as a day which I desire to be observed by all my fellow-citizens, wherever they may then be, as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Almighty GOD, the beneficent Creator and Ruler of the Universe. And I do further recommend to my fellow-citizens aforesaid that on that occasion they do reverently humble themselves in the dust and offer up penitent and fervent prayers and supplications to the Great Disposer of Events for a return of the inestimable blessings of peace, union, and harmony throughout the land which it has pleased Him to assign as a dwelling place for ourselves and for our posterity throughout all generations. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this 20th day of October, A.D. 1864, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-ninth." Email submitted by Tom Dunn

Vaclav Klaus, former President of the Czech Republic:
 "The danger to America is not Barack Obama, but a citizenry capable of entrusting a man like him with the Presidency. It will be far easier to limit and undo the follies of an Obama presidency than to restore the necessary common sense and good judgment to a depraved electorate willing to have such a man for their president. The problem is much deeper and far more serious than Mr. Obama, who is a mere symptom of what ails America. Blaming the prince of the fools should not blind anyone to the vast confederacy of fools that made him their prince. The Republic can survive a Barack Obama, who is, after all, merely a fool; it is less likely to survive a multitude of fools, such as those who made him their president!"

How's Your Eating?

With Thanksgiving right around the corner, I thought it would be a good time to check your eating habits; below is a survey which will not only be informative, but will give you a chance to change some of your habits by the New Year (the symbol VSP is used for "very significant problem").

1. Number of times per week you eat at fast food restaurants (0-1=excellent; 2-4=moderate; 8-10=VSP)
2. Number of soft drinks consumed per week (0-1=excellent; 2-4=moderate; 8-10=VSP)
3. Number of meals this week containing green leafy vegetables (7-10=excellent; less than 5=VSP)
4. Number of meals containing pork, beef or lamb (2-4=excellent; 4-7=moderate; 8-10=VSP)
5. Number of tsp of sugar added on cereal/coffee (0-1=excellent; ; 8+=VSP)
6. Number of cups of coffee per day (0-1=excellent; 6-7=poor; 8+=VSP)
7. Number of slices of whole grain bread eaten per week (14+=excellent; less than 5=VSP)
8. Number of sweet desserts consumed per week (0-3=excellent; 11-14=poor; 15+=VSP)
9. Number of meals with dairy products (9+=excellent; 3-4=poor)
10. Number of meals a week made up on deep fried foods (0-1=excellent; 4-7=moderate; 10-14=poor; 15+=VSP)
11. Number of mornings a week you skip breakfast or eat donuts, sweet rolls or highly sweetened foods (0-1=excellent; 4+= VSP)

As you can probably tell by your score, you are either doing a great job of giving your body the nutrition it needs, or you are in deep doo-doo. May the results of this survey help you to establish some good eating habits in your life, And... HAPPY THANKSGIVING!! (survey by Dr. Jeffrey Bland)

The Expedition To the South Pole

Amid the seemingly endless white monotony of Antarctica's Ross Ice Shelf, encased in a cairn made of snow, lie the bodies of three explorers who came agonizingly close to triumph. When they were discovered on November 12, 1912, almost a year after they had bid farewell to their last support team, the fate of Captain Robert Falcon Scott's trip to the South Pole became clear.

Scott's expedition, officially known as the British Antarctic Expedition, set off from Wales in June 1910. The chief aim of the ambitious trip was to be the first to reach the South Pole. No one in the world had yet claimed that achievement, although Norwegian explorer Roald Amundsen was a definite threat - he left Oslo on his own South Pole expedition 12 days before Scott's departure. The pressure was on.

On September 13, 1911, after months of building shelters, laying depots filled with food and fuel, and conducting scientific research, Scott was ready for the trip to the Pole. Sixteen men divided into four teams began the journey, accompanied by sledges, dogs, and ponies. At predetermined points along the way, three of the sub-teams turned back, leaving Scott and four of his most resilient men to complete the journey to the South Pole and back.

Scott, Henry Bowers, Edgar Evans, Titus Oates, and Edward Wilson had been slogging through the snow for a miserable four months when, on January 16, 1912, they finally got within 15 miles of the South Pole. There that they spotted a black speck in the distance. It was a flag, planted at the South Pole a month earlier by Roald Amundsen.

Honoring GOD...

"The older I get, the more difficult life's challenges get...the more difficult the challenges, the more I depend upon the LORD...the more I depend upon the LORD, the more faithful He proves to be...the more faithful He proves to be, the more I love Him...the more I love Him, the more I want my life to honor Him...the more I honor Him, the more He honors me...so, it may be more challenging as the years pass, but it's easier and easier to "count it all Joy", and watch as He turns yet another mess into a "Miracle" for His Glory and my Joy!" Hallelujah! Shari Rupp - Salida, CO

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

As we are getting near the end of this year, I want to take time to tell you again - and I'm sure you've found this true - that the LORD is faithful. It is something we have need of hearing over and over again, whether we are ministering to children overseas and waiting for "ends to meet" each month or simply trying to walk out our relationship with the LORD each day in our personal lives. I write to you as one who can testify that the LORD is watching you - "His eyes move to and fro throughout the whole earth...that He may strongly support those whose heart is completely His!" II Chronicles 16:9 - and He knows your situation. He will never fail you; He is the One who hears the cries no one else pays attention to...He knows the prayers of weak and helpless individuals who are searching for answers. He delights in you and has declared in His Word that the plans He has for you are plans for a future and a hope! (Jeremiah 29:11)

Thank you for considering the poor of this world and for bringing to them a future and a hope. Your participation directly affects the future of the destiny of children and families the LORD cares about. May you see this month the faithfulness of the LORD in those areas for which you are praying. We love you each and pray the blessings of the GOD over your life.
