

This Year So Far...

1. My goal for 2016 was to lose just 10 pounds...only 15 to go...
2. I ate salad for dinner...mostly croutons & tomatoes...really just one round, big crouton covered with tomato sauce...and cheese...O.K. it was a pizza....
3. I just did a week's worth of cardio after walking into a spider web....
4. I don't mean to brag but...I finished my 14-day diet food in 3 1/2 hours....
5. Senility has been a smooth transition for me....
6. Remember back when we were kids and every time it was below zero outside they closed school? Me neither....
7. I may not be that funny or athletic or good looking or smart or talented...I forgot where I was going with this....
8. I love being over 75...I learn something new every day...and forget 5 others.
9. A thief broke into my house last night...He started searching for money...so I got up and searched with him...
10. My dentist told me I need a Crown...I said, "You bet; I've got mine waiting for me in heaven!"
11. I think I'll just put an "Out of Order" sticker on my forehead and call it a day....

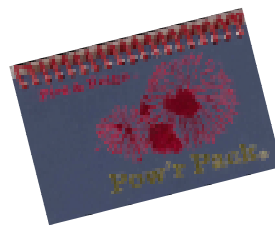

A liberal acquaintance from California asked me what I thought he might need in order to defend his home and family from home invasion and the like. I suggested a 9mm, a couple of clips, and a box of shells.

A few days later he sent me this picture and asked me how to make it all work. He voted for Obama...twice.

In the fall of the year, farmers' thoughts turn to harvest, the reward of their efforts. Have you ever thought of your harvest as a reward of your efforts? I'm not talking about manual labor, although confessing the Word for your harvest can seem just as hard and laborious as going into a field and harvesting a crop. The Word of GOD is based on the concept of sowing and reaping. It is in sowing that the dimension of one's life changes. GOD dropped a seed concept into my spirit the other day:

"When you plant a seed, your harvest is always the goal!"

Believe it or not, your life is just like a farmer's. He goes out and gets the ground ready for planting. He plows and harrows and discs to make the soil perfect; then he plants seed. He has a definite vision in mind. If he plants corn, he knows that corn is going to come up.

Now, what I've got to get some of you to understand is, GOD is a Giver... and He is giving you opportunities to sow! You may be sowing for a need or a project or an opportunity to prosper, but you are planting and sowing with a harvest in mind. If you have a financial need, what you sow will be seed for a better financial situation. If you have a health situation, you're sowing with divine health in mind (by the way, have you given an offering to GOD for your healing?). When you give an offering, you're not only honoring GOD, you're planting seed. Do you know that many people, who give offerings, just drop the money in the offering plate or send a check to a ministry without even considering what they want in return? Do you know that the very best thing that you can do, when you're writing that check or sending money, is to attach a Scripture that Holy Spirit gives you - a Scripture on finances for a blessing. For instance, when I send a check, I put a Scripture on the check. Verses you might use: Deuteronomy 8:18, "But you shall remember the LORD, your GOD, for it is He Who is giving you Power to make wealth, that He may confirm His Covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is this day," or "...and my GOD shall supply all my need according to His riches in glory in Christ JESUS!" (Philippians 4:19)

I found a Scripture the other day that I've been putting on our sowing checks, "Deal bountifully with Thy servant, that I may live and keep Thy Word. Open my eyes, that I may behold wonderful things from Thy Word." (Psalm 119:17-18) In fact, I admit that I put blessing verses on some of your checks and receipts, if you don't have them written down. More and more of you are writing Scriptures with your contributions...Good For You! I want you to win and I desire the very best harvest for you as you give to Call To Freedom and the Home of Refuge.

As you read the Word along with us, you realize that JESUS sowed the Word with His mouth in every situation. The "Divine Seed" knew that what He spoke would bring healing and deliverance and knowledge and understanding to the hearers. Words spoken are seeds planted that bring a harvest of victory over the enemy. Revelation 12:11 tells us that we overcome the devil "by the Blood of the Lamb and the Word of our testimony...." If you want a great harvest, you must plant Word-seed! And just don't throw that offering in the plate like it's a obligation you owe. JESUS paid the debt; now sow with a supernatural harvest in mind!

The Deadline For Your Conscience Is Coming Up...

“Animals that formerly were self-sufficient are now showing signs of belonging to the Democrat Party. They have apparently learned to just sit and wait for the government to step in and provide for their care and sustenance, as over half of the U. S. population is now receiving. This photo is black bear turned Democrat near Mt. McKinley; he's nicknamed Bearack Obearma. It is believed that he has become a campground organizer.” If you think that you and your family are better off these last eight years, and you want to see it continue - more abortions, more illegal immigration, more liberal Supreme Court judges, more hand outs to immigrants and less to veterans, then vote for Hillary Clinton.

RONALD REAGAN

DONALD TRUMP

Ronald Reagan was mocked and not considered to be a serious candidate before winning the Presidency. He was a movie and T.V. celebrity before running for office, and like Donald Trump, he was a Democrat before switching to Republican. He used the phrase “Let’s Make America Great Again”, and after four years of a floundering presidency by Jimmy Carter, America needed an overhaul. He was attacked by a protester at the podium during his speech at the Republican National Convention, as he used straight talk and humor to communicate with supporters.

Ronald Reagan became the oldest President elected, and the first President who had a divorce. He succeeded a Democrat President, was pro-immigration but strongly against illegal immigration. Ronald Reagan was pro-life and pro-2nd Amendment...and pro-tax reduction. He appointed Sandra Day O’Connor and Antonin Scalia to the Supreme Court, both outstanding conservatives. Initially considered to “not be a true conservative” by the establishment, but increased GOP voter turnout and became a Republican Party icon and Beloved President!

Donald Trump is being mocked and not considered to be a serious candidate despite being the GOP frontrunner and amassing more primary votes than any Republican candidate to date. He was a T.V. celebrity before running for office, with Apprentice being a top-watched show. He was a Democrat before switching to Republican, and pro-life and pro-2nd Amendment. He is using “Make American Great Again” as his campaign slogan...and he uses straight talk and humor to communicate with supporters. Donald Trump would become the oldest President if elected, and would be the 2nd President who had a divorce. He would succeed a Democrat President and is strongly against illegal immigration, establishing a vetting process for immigrants coming to the U.S. If President, he will appoint conservative Justices to the Supreme Court. Donald Trump is considered by the left and establishment to “not be a true conservative”, but has increased GOP turnout considerably from the last two elections, and can potentially become a Republican Party icon...and Beloved President.

Mother Goose Calls 911...

On Monday, Officer Givens was sitting in his patrol car in a parking lot when he was accosted by one very unexpected visitor who seemed dead set on getting his attention. “This goose came up and started pecking on the side of the car,” Givens told the paper. “I threw some food out for her, but she didn’t take it. She just kept pecking and quacking. Then she walked away, stopped and looked back. Then came over again and pecked some more.”

When the goose walked away a second time, and again looked back, Givens decided to follow her, and it’s a good thing that he did. “She led me about 100 yards away to this grassy area near a creek. That’s when I saw one of her babies all tangled up in some string from a balloon. His little webbed feet were kicking furiously,” said Givens. “She led me straight to him.” Though stunned by what just happened, Givens was wary of approaching the trapped gosling, fearing that the goose might attack if he did. So instead, he radioed the SPCA, but no wildlife rescuers were immediately available.

Givens’ colleague, Officer Cecilia Charron, heard the call and volunteered to help. “She showed up on her own,” he said. “I told her to be careful, but she just walked over and untangled the baby. The mother goose just watched, like she knew; it was amazing!” Once the gosling was untangled, Givens and Charron looked on as he rejoined his mom and swam away safely. Not surprisingly, the officers were in disbelief about how it all played out from start to finish. Charron even started to tear up, telling Givens it was one of the highlights of her twenty-four years on the force.

“It seems like something fabricated; it was just incredible,” said Givens. “I honestly don’t know why I decided to follow her, but I did. It makes me wonder - do they know to turn to humans when they need help?” Though we’ll never be sure if the desperate mother goose did indeed approach the officer knowing he would help, what is certain is that he did - and that’s what made the difference. “I don’t know what it all means,” he said, “but I hope it might inspire more compassion in other people.”
