

The Effects Of Alcohol Consumption...

We drank... for joy and became miserable; we drank for sociability and became argumentative; we drank for sophistication and became obnoxious; we drank for friendship and made enemies; we drank for sleep and awakened exhausted; we drank for strength and felt weak; we drank for exhilaration and ended up depressed; we drank for "medicinal purposes" and acquired health problems; we drank to get calmed down and ended up with the shakes; we drank for confidence and became afraid; we drank to make conversation flow more easily and the words came out slurred and incoherent; we drank to diminish our problems and saw them multiply; we drank to feel heavenly and ended up feeling like hell; we drank to cope with life and invited death!

"Who is anxious? Who has sorrow? Who is always fighting? Who is always complaining and angry? Who has bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes? Those who spend long hours in the taverns, trying new drinks. You will see hallucinations, and you will say perverse things. And you will stagger like a sailor in the middle of the sea with everything tossing and turning, clinging to a swaying mast. You will say, 'They hit me, but I didn't feel it; they beat me, but I didn't know it. When I wake up...I will seek another drink!'"

(Proverbs 23:29-35) DON'T DO IT!

The Perils of UNBELIEF!

Article by Barbara Carmack

Unbelief has its roots at the very beginning of mankind...in the Garden of Eden. When the serpent came to Eve and challenged her on what GOD had said to her, here is what he said, "Has GOD really said, 'You shall not eat from the tree of the garden?'" What did this do to Eve? It put a question of doubt in her mind: "Did GOD really say that?" That's unbelief! Mankind's sinning is derived from unbelief; every time you react in sin, you're reacting in unbelief - it's the root cause of every sinful reaction - Unbelief is Sin! JESUS said in Mark 13:5, "Take heed lest any man deceive you," or as the New American Standard says, "See to it that no one misleads you." Unbelief is responsible for every type of sin...and you, with the help of Holy Spirit, are responsible to overcome it.

Hebrews 3:12-19 confirms that: "Take heed, Brothers and Sisters, that there not be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart that falls away from the living GOD. But encourage one another day after day, as long as it is still called 'Today,' so that none of you will be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin (hardened (#4645) - to stiffen or harden; stubborn, inflexible persistence; hardening of the heart; obstinacy in wickedness). It's so important that you allow Holy Spirit to work a work in your heart, to rid you of any stubbornness or unbelief that comes against the work of GOD in your heart. Hebrews 3 goes on to say, "So we see that because of their unbelief they were not able to enter His rest (absolute peace and assurance of who you are in Christ JESUS!)."

It is imperative that you realize that Believing is a key in the fight against unbelief. Hebrews 4:3 tells us, "For only we who Believe can enter His rest (GOD's rest is there for people to enter); so let us do our best to enter that rest. But if we disobey GOD, as the people of Israel did, we will fall."

The Word of GOD is the door to knowing the will of GOD in your life. It's JESUS Who understands your weaknesses, took your place on the cross, died for you, and rose again to give you "right standing" with GOD Himself. Since the sin committed in the Garden of Eden there had been a "dividing wall" separating you from GOD's Presence, but then JESUS came (GOD in the flesh) and broke down that wall of separation and gave you "right standing" with GOD...Righteousness = you no longer have a sense of fear, guilt, condemnation, inferiority, or shame: "So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious GOD. There we will receive His mercy, and we will find Grace to help us when we need it most!" (Hebrews 4:16) Hallelujah! What areas of unbelief you need to overcome:

FEAR: Afraid, and not believing that what He promised will come to pass; you've got to settle on what and Who you believe - JESUS and the Word of GOD! "GOD has not given you that spirit of fear...." (II Timothy 1:7)
CONFUSION: "For GOD is not a GOD of confusion but of peace...." (I Corinthians 14:33) BELIEVE that the sin nature is eradicated from you....BELIEVE that GOD will take you to places you've never been: Death has no more dominion over you, "Sin is no longer your master, for you no longer live under the requirements of the law. Instead, you live under the freedom of GOD's Grace." (His Ability in you! Romans 6:8-14)

Making America Great Again! Chief Master Sergeant George Roof, retired

From his inaugural address, Barack Hussein Obama slandered America and within days had begun to encourage dissention of the races as well as slandering police who, in his own words “acted stupidly.” That was mild compared to all the corrupt policies, doubling the national debt during his presidency, feeding us lies about how Muslims built this country, and nationalizing American industries. Fueled by George Soros’ money and using the Air Force fleet as his personal charters, he appointed malcontents and traitors into positions of authority. He trashed the Constitution by installing “czars” to bypass congressional authority, using executive authority to even pass Obamacare. And by this time Congress was completely corrupt on both sides of the aisle. Mysteriously, the lone outspoken conservative Supreme Court Justice Scalia suddenly died in his sleep at an Obama pal’s hunting lodge and the Supreme Court was evenly split. The Democratic Party became more socialistic in its ideology, and the true Democratic Party disintegrated.

Then an American, who expressed unbridled love of country and respect for police, firemen and military, steam-rolled across the heartland and the liberals realized their scheme was trashed....A Constitutionalist would be nominated to the Supreme Court and, if old lady Ginsburg would actually retire and leave, the Supreme Court would have a massive majority of Constitutionlists for the next 40-50 years! Donald Trump may NOT be the best person for the job, but he’s such a welcome respite from the  whimps who’ve been running the swamp that it’s refreshing to see. At the very least, Donald Trump derailed the Socialist train and bought us precious time. If he only does half of what he’s promised, we’ll still be legions ahead of where Obama dragged us. Already countries who held us in contempt are lining up to be found in the favor of America. Donald Trump has done more in his short time in the public eye...he prevented Hillary Clinton from becoming president! So for you liberal lurkers and you fence-sitters...tough! You had your big hurrah and now your party is over. For you staunch Republicans in office, don’t gloat so much yourselves. You’ve been put on notice by the American people that we’re fed up with ALL YOU left-wing naysavers, and if you don’t start putting America first, you do so at your own peril. VOTE IN NOVEMBER

Remember, Halloween is a holiday created by the devil to keep GOD’s people distracted and off-balance. Don’t give in to those “cute little costumes”, because the enemy comes as an “angel of light”: “For even satan disguises himself as an “angel of light”.” (II Corinthians 11:14)

Be on guard and be aware that in the last days deception will reign in this world....If you would like to read more about Halloween and it’s ungodly history, go to the website www.freedomstreet.org and click on “Halloween” on the “Freedom Corner” page. May you be blessed with wisdom!

Just A Little Trivia... The Stolen Car - Submitted by Harold Fast

The proud owner of a magnificent 1956 Chevrolet convertible, wrote to say he had restored the car to perfection over the last few years, and sent this: “On a very warm summer afternoon I decided to take my car to town. It needed gas, as the gauge was practically on empty, but I wanted ice cream, so I headed first to my favorite ice cream shop. I had trouble finding a parking space and had to park the car down a side street. I noticed a group of young guys standing around smoking cigarettes and eyeing the car rather covetously. I was a bit uneasy leaving it there, but people often take interest in such an old and well-preserved car, so I went off to enjoy my ice cream.

The line at the ice cream shop was long and it took me quite a while to return to my car; when I did, my worst fears were realized...my car was gone! I called the police and reported the theft. About ten minutes later the police called me to say they had located the car abandoned near a gas station a few miles out of town. They said it was unharmed, and I was relieved. It seems just before I called, the police had received a call from a young woman who was an employee at a self-service gas station. She told them that three young men had driven in with this beautiful old convertible. One of them came to the window and prepaid for 20 dollars worth of gas. Then all three of them walked around the car. Then they all got in the car and drove off, without filling the tank. The question is, ‘Why would anybody steal a car, pay for gas that they never pumped and then abandon the car later, and walk away?’

Take A Knee...

Article by Ted Nugent - A Lesson For the NFL
Email by Dottie Urban

Take a little trip to Valley Forge in January. Hold a musket ball in your fingers and imagine it piercing your flesh and breaking a bone or two. There won't be a doctor or trainer to assist you until after the battle, so just wait your turn. Take your cleats and socks off to get a real experience. Then, take a knee on the beach in Normandy where man after American man stormed the beach, even as the one in front of them was shot to pieces...the very sea stained with American blood. The only blockers most had were the dead bodies in front of them, riddled with bullets from enemy fire.

Take a knee in the sweat-soaked jungles of Vietnam. From Khe Sanh to Saigon, anywhere will do...Americans died in all those jungles. There was no playbook that told them what was next, but they knew what flag they represented. When they came home, they were protested as well, and spit on for reasons only cowards know. Take a knee in the blood drenched sands of Fallujah in 110 degree heat, wearing your Kevlar helmet and battle dress. Your number won't be printed on it unless your number is up! You'll need to stay hydrated but there won't be anyone to squirt Gatorade into your mouth; you're on your own.

There are a lot of places to take a knee where Americans have given their lives all over the world. When you use the banner under which they fought as a source for your displeasure, you dishonor the memories of those who bled for the very freedoms you have. That's what the red stripes on our flag mean; they represent the blood of those who spilled a sea of it defending your liberty. While you're on your knee, pray for those that came before you, not on a manicured lawn striped and printed with numbers to announce every inch of ground taken, but on nameless hills and bloodied beaches and sweltering forests and bitter cold mountains, every inch marked by an American life lost serving that flag you protest.

No cheerleaders, no announcers, no coaches, no fans, just American men and women, delivering the real fight against those who chose to harm us, blazing a path so you would have the right to “take a knee.” You haven't any inkling of what it took to get you where you are, but your “protest” is duly noted. Not only is it disgraceful to a nation of real heroes, it serves the purpose of pointing to your ingratitude for those who chose to defend you under that banner that will still wave long after your jersey is retired. If you really feel the need to take a knee, come with me to church on Sunday and we'll both kneel before Almighty GOD. We'll thank Him for preserving this country for as long as He has. We'll beg forgiveness for our ingratitude for all He has provided us. We'll appeal to Him for understanding and wisdom. We'll pray for Liberty and Justice for all, because He is the One Who provides those things. But there will be no protest. There will only be gratitude for His provision and a plea for His continued Grace and Mercy on the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave! It goes like this, GOD BLESS AMERICA!

Home Of Refuge Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

To GOD be the Glory for the great things He has done!
The new church in Cardompata is rejoicing in the selfless and generous giving of their American Brothers and Sisters! As you can see in the photos, the congregation is increasing every time we meet to praise GOD and learn from His Word. Rosa loves to lead the congregation in Praise and Worship. We are gathering people around us to help us in the building of an orphanage and home for the elderly. People are excited to join in with the work and help in bringing JESUS to people who have been overlooked by the world. With your help we are meeting the spiritual and physical needs of these hungry people in the shadow of the Andes Mountains of Peru.

Thank you for your giving hearts for people you may never meet... but one day soon there will be a glorious reunion with them and our LORD JESUS.
