

Important Feast Days...

The holiest time of the Jewish year begins with Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year. Both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are referred to as the "Days of Awe", because during this time a Jewish individual's fate is inscribed and sealed for the coming years. The ten days from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur inclusively are considered "Ten Days of Penitence," during which people are admonished to repent of their sins and perform good deeds in order to merit an inscription in the Book of Life. Rosh Hashanah is the only Jewish holiday celebrated on a new moon (the first of the month), in the month Tishri (September-October). In Jewish teaching, both days of Rosh Hashanah are regarded as one long day rather than two separate days. There was so be NO WORK during these holidays, and FASTING is carried out.

Modern practices during the two days of Rosh Hashanah include sending New Year's greeting cards, wearing the festival garment known as "the kittel", and on the second day, adding a new fruit at meal time or wearing a new garment. The Rosh Hashanah liturgy declares, "There is no advocate of righteousness to plead our cause, before the Judge of the Universe." Biblical Christians see JESUS, the Messiah as that Righteous Advocate: "...we have an Advocate with the Father, Christ JESUS the Righteous!" (1 John 2:1). Through His sacrifice, our names are permanently inscribed in the Book of Life! Pray for Salvation for the Jewish people.

Meet Me In the Stairwell

Story by Stacey Randall - Submitted by Tom Dunn, Golden, CO

"You say you will never forget where you were when you heard the news on September 11, 2001...neither will I. I was on the 110th floor in a smoke-filled room with a man who called his wife to say 'Good-Bye.' I held his fingers steady as he dialed. I gave him the peace to say, 'Honey, I am not going to make it, but it is OK..I am ready to go.' I was with his wife when he called as she fed breakfast to their children. I held her up as she tried to understand his words and as she realized he wasn't coming home that night.

I was in the stairwell of the 23rd floor when a woman cried out to Me for help. 'I have been knocking on the door of your heart for 50 years!' I said. 'Of course I will show you the way home - only Believe in Me now.' I was at the base of the building with the priest, who was ministering to the injured and devastated souls. I took him home to tend to his flock in Heaven; he heard My voice and answered.

I was on all four of those planes...in every seat, with every prayer. I was with the crew as they were overtaken. I was in the very hearts of the Believers there, comforting and assuring them that their Faith has saved them.

I was in Texas, Virginia, California, Michigan, Afghanistan; I was standing next to you when you heard the terrible news. Did you sense Me? I want you to know that I saw every face. I knew every name - though not all knew Me. Some met Me for the first time on the 86th floor. Some sought Me with their last breath. Some couldn't hear Me calling to them through the smoke and flames: 'Do not fear for I Am with you; do not anxiously look about you for I Am your GOD...I will strengthen you, surely I will help you; surely I will uphold you with My righteous Right Hand!' (Isaiah 41:10) Some chose, for the final time, to ignore Me, but I was there. I did not place you in the Tower that day. You may not know why, but I do. However, if you were there in that explosive moment in time, would you have reached for Me?

September 11, 2001, was not the end of the journey for you. But someday your journey will end...and I will be there for you as well. Seek Me now while I may be found: 'And you will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.' Then, at any moment, you know you are 'ready to go.' I will be in the stairwell of your final moments."

"Come to Me all you who are weary and burdened down...and I will give you rest; take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me...for I Am gentle and humble in heart - team up with Me - and I will give you rest... relief, ease and refreshment and recreation and blessed quiet for your soul. For My yoke is easy - good, useful, not harsh or pressing but comfortable, gracious and pleasant, and My burden is light and easy to bear!" (Matthew 11:28)

The 9/11 Gift From Russia...

I have never seen or heard of this memorial. This giant, suspended tear drop symbolizes all the tears the world had shed in response to that terrifying day. This 100-foot tall monument was given to the U.S.A. back in 2006 by the Russian people in memory of all those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001. The Tear Drop 9/11 Memorial is located in Harbor View Park, Bayonne, New Jersey, right across from New York City, on the other side of Hudson Bay from The Statue of Liberty. The break in the cracked facade forms the shape of the two towers. At the base are recorded the names of all the people who perished, yet we do not hear about it.

Within the international arena of one-upmanship, the Russian gift of the "Tear Of Grief" has captured a New York Harbor distinction that had long been held by the French. From now on, visitors sailing into the Port of New York will observe Russia's "Tear Drop Memorial" off the port side before they see France's Statue of Liberty standing proudly with her torch held high above Liberty Island. This is, however, a shallow distinction. Besides rising above the controversy and overcoming the din of provincial opposition, there is another far more significant aspect to this sculpture. It stands today within sight of the World Trade Center as a permanent expression of grief and empathy from the citizens of a country considered to be a political enemy.

The Teardrop Memorial was conceived and designed by Russian artist, Zurab Tsereteli, who observed the outpouring of grief for America as he walked the streets of Moscow. The memorial is made of steel sheathed in bronze. Standing 100 feet high, its center contains a jagged tear. In it hangs a 40-foot stain-less steel teardrop, representing sadness and grief over the loss of life, but also hope for a future free from terror. Etched in granite on an 11-sided base are the names of the nearly 3,000 killed in the 1993 World Trade Center bombings and the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, 2001. Thank you, Russia!

Barba-Q & A:

Here's a question and comment from Mark, a Pow'r Partner in Florida: "Who is the Bride of Christ?" Barbara, the future of the Bride of Christ is in Revelation 21. The correct answer to the "Bride" question is in that chapter, some times explicitly, but mostly by allusion. Ephesians 5 adds to the answer. Young's Literal Translation uses the word "assembly" verses church which is an excellent distinction. "Church" has such a narrow meaning today as it fails to include the original assembly. Mark in Florida

Mark, here, of course, is the parable of JESUS in Matthew 25 that describes 10 virgins, five who have prepared for the wedding and five who have not....And the five who were prepared to meet the Bridegroom "...went in with Him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut." We know that the five wise virgins were born-again Believers, who are filled with the Holy Spirit (represented by the oil). In Revelation 21, an angel tells John, "Come here; I shall show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb", and before he reveals the Bride he shows John all the wonderful things that the Bride will enjoy - the Holy City and Heaven - and then in verse 27, "...and nothing unclean and no one who practices abomination and lying, shall ever come into it (Jerusalem)...but only those WHOSE NAMES ARE WRITTEN IN THE LAMB'S BOOK OF LIFE." And there you have a description of the Bride of Christ: Those who are born-again and have received JESUS as their Savior and LORD. Song of Solomon is a beautiful description of the marriage of Christ and His Bride - the Church...and Ephesians 5:23-33 carries it further to explain how JESUS sanctifies the church by "...the washing of the Word that He might present to Himself the Church in all her glory...." GOD has a awesome future planned for you, Barbara

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Inside their new chapel

Early one morning, my daughter and Rosa and I were up and on our way about the city when I heard an elderly voice pleading for food. An old man was lying face down on the concrete, both arms extended upward and palms open. "Can you please help me?" he asked, without raising his face. I knelt down, desiring to look into his eyes and gain an understanding from his gaze. But there was no opportunity for such an exchange, because it soon became apparent why he hadn't lifted his eyes to meet mine...for when I gently raised his face in my hands, I was shocked by the realization that he had no eyes...only empty sockets! Such suffering! In that moment, I understood why the LORD had put the burden of not only taking care of the orphans, but the elderly also. Looking at this frail man, I realized what an immense opportunity and challenge this was. It would not be enough to rescue the children while the elderly lay dying of hunger in the streets; they too, have nowhere to go and no one to help them.

When you are giving to Home Of Refuge you are not only sheltering the orphans that GOD calls into our fold, but you are helping the elderly from dying in the streets of Peru. My Friends...it doesn't get any more "Christian" than to provide food for the hungry and to invite those who are strangers and in need of care into a warm and loving environment! Paul says it so well: "In great ordeal of affliction their abundance of Joy...overflowed in the wealth of their sacrificial giving, according to their ability and beyond their ability (the greatest ability you can have is availability!) they gave of their own free will. They begged us again and again for the privilege of sharing in the gift for the Believers in need. They even did more than we had hoped. Since you excel in so many ways - in your faith, your gifted speakers, your knowledge, your enthusiasm, and your love from us - I want you to excel also in this gracious act of giving." II Corinthians 8:2-7 (NLT)
