

Keep the FAITH...

“YOU CANNOT HANG OUT WITH NEGATIVE PEOPLE AND EXPECT TO LIVE A POSITIVE LIFE?”

Recently I had to go to the Emergency Room for a pain in my side. Not wanting to sit there for several hours, I put on my MAGIC GREEN HAT. When I went into the E.R., I noticed that 3/4 of the people in the room got up and left. I guess they decided that they weren't that sick after all. It cut at least 3 hours off my waiting time.

Here's my MAGIC GREEN HAT:

“Hello and Good-bye”

By Barbara Carmack

Robert Schuller, pastor of the Crystal Cathedral in Southern California, made a very poignant statement: “Life is full of ‘hellos’ and ‘good-byes’”. Life is full of people...people who have filled your life with so much joy and fun, and others who have loved enough to correct when it was needed. I hope that you have realized that with each departure in your life, that your trust in GOD was and is paramount. This is when Proverbs 3:5 truly comes into play: “Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.” It seems like your own understanding sometimes...no, most of the time, doesn’t guide you in the path that GOD wants you to go. Maybe that’s why David wrote in Psalm 23:4, “Thy rod and Thy staff...they comfort me.” The rod and staff were used to keep sheep in line and the staff specifically got hold of their neck when they were about to fall into a ditch or over a cliff.

When I found this photo of Derin with Mokka and little Sarah (she’s 15 now), I just had to put them in the Sept. issue... hope you don’t mind. The photo below shows 7 of our grandchildren. The twins, Emma and Bekka, on the left are now 20. Hannah, 2nd from the left is 21 and working full-time at Hobby Lobby. Little Levi, sitting on my lap, is now 13 and a genius at creating programs for gamers. Caleb, who is lying behind Derin and me on the sofa, is 22 and is an EMT in Austin, TX (miss him), but we text. Sarah is sitting on Derin’s lap, and Johnathan, now 18, at the far right, plays many instruments and climbs 20 ft. boulder faces - a new sport with the young and agile called “Bouldering”seven of our 15 grandchildren. I guess what I’m trying to say is when it comes time to say “hello”, say it with love for your new friend who GOD has brought into your life...and love them with the love of the LORD. Then when it’s time to say “good-bye” you have no regrets and the grief, which will come, will quietly lose itself in GOD’s tender embrace. GOD bless you and keep you, my Friend!

Making America Great Again!

"I don't think we're going to get out of this thing; I'm going to have to go out on Faith." It was the voice of Todd Beamer, a passenger on board Flight 93 over Pennsylvania. Todd died as he lived...a faithful evangelical Believer. After the passengers were herded to the back of the jet, Beamer called the GTE Customer Center in Illinois. He told supervisor Lisa Jefferson about the hijacking; the passengers were planning to jump the terrorists, he said. And then he asked her to pray with him. As Newsweek relates, "Beamer kept a LORD'S Prayer bookmark in his Tom Clancy novel, but he didn't need any prompting. He began to recite the ancient Scripture, and Jefferson joined him: 'Our Father Who art in heaven, hallowed by Thy Name....' As they finished, Beamer added, 'JESUS, help me!'"

Flight 93 over Pennsylvania - all 44 killed

And then, Beamer and his fellow passengers prayed a prayer that has comforted millions, the prayer that David wrote in a time of great anguish, "The LORD is my Shepherd, I shall not want, He makes me to lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside the still waters, He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake; yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me...Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me...." And then the famous last words, were uttered by Todd as they ran to the cockpit: "Are you guys ready? LET'S ROLL!"

The Battle Called Market Garden - 1944

About six miles from Maastricht, in the Netherlands, lie buried 8,301 American soldiers who died in "Operation Market Garden" in the battles to liberate Holland in September of 1944. Every one of the men buried in the cemetery, as well as those in the Canadian and British military cemeteries, has been adopted by a Dutch family who mind the grave, decorate it, and keep alive the memory of the soldier they have adopted. It is even the custom to keep a portrait of "their" American soldier in a place of honor in their home.

Annually, on "Liberation Day", memorial services are held for "the men who died to liberate Holland." The day concludes with a concert. The final piece is always "Il Silenzio", a memorial piece commissioned by the Dutch, and first played in 1965 on the 20th anniversary of Holland's liberation. It has been the concluding piece of the memorial concert ever since. If you google "Il Silenzio" by Andre' Rieu, you will hear 13-yr-old trumpeter, Melissa Venema, who plays so beautifully the hymn in memory of the American soldiers who died in a foreign land to give that country independence.

Healing Together...

A TRIUMPHANT STORY FROM SAMARITAN'S PURSE:

Army Staff Sergeant Mike Lynch didn't think he could forgive GOD for his best friend's death. "Hopeless and dark" is how he described his first visit to the gravesite in Dallas. It's also a picture of his life, as he drank away the memories of April 16, 2015. That's the day he saw his friend, Army Private Aaron Hudson, killed by an improvised explosive device. Mike was close enough to the explosion that he suffered a traumatic brain injury and other wounds. He was filled with survivor's guilt and anger toward GOD.

When Mike and his wife, Jillian, came to Samaritan Lodge Alaska last summer with Operation Heal our Patriots, Mike had been sober for three years and had recently become a follower of Christ. But he still wrestled with grief over losing Aaron. In Alaska, Mike learned that he could be honest with GOD and with others about the pain he was feeling. As he shared these traumatic memories and spiritual struggles with our retired military chaplains and other veteran couples, the LORD brought healing to his heart. There had been a special ceremony around a flag pole commemorating his fallen friend.

The flag pole where Mike nailed Aaron's bracelet

During the ceremony, Mike removed a bracelet he'd worn for years commemorating his fallen friend. He nailed it to a post adorned by many other bracelets, put there by veterans who had carried the weight of their grief for so long. "This is a visible symbol, not that I'm letting go of Aaron, but I'm not blaming GOD anymore for what happened." Nearly 500 military couples, including Mike and Jillian, attended the 2019 Annual Reunion. Mike shared at the reunion, "My relationship with GOD has grown, and my relationship with Jill and our family has grown. Part of that is forgiveness and part of it is the unspoken bond I have with these other veterans." Samaritan's Purse President Franklin Graham told them, "The only way that GOD can come and fill the emptiness in your lives is through JESUS Christ.

All of us have sinned and fallen short of GOD's standard, but JESUS Christ came to this earth on a rescue mission to save you, to take your sins on the cross, and to die on your behalf." What a great example of Christ's Love as these wounded military veterans and their wives give their hearts to JESUS!

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

The doors are open now...children will come...more will follow. Elderly will come...more will follow. We will not turn them away. We will seek them out and bring them in. Each will need a bed, bedspread, sheets, towel, clothing, shoes, three daily meals, toiletries, etc. Our costs are now much larger, as is our responsibility...and it is imperative that we meet them. GOD is BIG and capable and generous to supply all of our needs "GOD is able to make all Grace abound to you, that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed." (II Corinthians 9:8) He will meet the needs, and He wants to involve you in the process of getting HIS provision to the poor. YOU will be His instrument and be credited with eternal riches because of it. YOU will become the "blessor" and therefore, the recipient of blessings in return. YOU will experience the JOY of the Father's heart as you give to the poor, which GOD calls lending to the LORD: "He who is gracious to the poor lends to the LORD!" (Proverbs 19:17) And we are so grateful for your giving heart!!
