

Do You Walk the Talk?

The light turned yellow, just in front of him. He did the right thing, stopping at the crosswalk, even though he could have beaten the red light by accelerating through the intersection. The tailgating woman was furious and honked her horn, screaming in frustration, as she missed her chance to get through the intersection, dropping her cell phone and make-up. She was still in mid-rant, when she heard a tap on her window and looked up into the face of a very serious police officer. The officer ordered her to exit her car with her hands up. He took her to the police station where she was searched, fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

After a couple of hours, a policeman approached the cell and opened the door. She was escorted back to the booking desk where the arresting officer was waiting with her personal effects. He said, "I'm very sorry for this mistake. You see, I pulled up behind your car while you were blowing your horn, flipping off the guy in front of you and cussing a blue streak at him. I noticed the 'What Would Jesus Do' bumper sticker, the 'Choose Life' license plate holder, the 'Follow Me to Sunday School' bumper sticker, and the chrome-plated Christian fish emblem on the trunk, so naturally...I assumed you had stolen the car." Priceless! (Article submitted by Tim Rozeboom)

Walking In His Light!

Article by Kimberly J. Duell

I love the light; I realize that with GOD there is always light...and in JESUS Christ there is no darkness. In Genesis 1:4 GOD said, "Let there be light," and there was light. And GOD saw that the light was good, and He separated the light from the darkness. GOD called the light "day," and the darkness He called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning - day one. "Day one" is the literal translation from the Hebrew text. In the Hebrew, the first day is not referred to as "first" - it's titled "day one". This is significant. There are no small coincidences or unimportant details in the Word of GOD. "Day one" (in the beginning) is reflective of "One Day" (the fulfillment of the Promise at the end). The terms are like book ends on the story of the world - the story of US - who we are and why we are here.

Psalm 139:12 "Even the darkness is not dark to Thee, and the night is as bright as the dark; darkness and light are alike to Thee." With GOD, there is a blending of light with dark in such a way that dark is still there, but no longer dark or foreboding - the compromise of darkness is allowing light to overtake it. Our lives have sunny days and dark nights. When we have believed and chosen to be in agreement with GOD, that Light stays with us even in our darkest nights!

My friend, Celena, sent me a spin on "Turn Your Eyes Upon JESUS" earlier this year... "and the things of earth will grow strangely light ... in the light of HIS Glory and Grace." When GOD is in us, HIS Presence is a constant Light - like the fire by night, or the light in the temple that is documented in Exodus and Deuteronomy. HIS Presence in us changes everything - IF - we do not block HIS work. Our choices allow HIS order - HIS Grace and Strength - OR - prevent HIS work of Grace and Strength. We are the dark, clay organism that ends in mortality, and HE is the Light in us - the Goodness, Kindness, and Grace. Day One begins in darkness, with GOD hovering over that darkness - planning, dreaming, hoping, strategizing, inventing, sketching, preparing, proposing - "Let there be Light!"

Darkness is no longer alone, but illuminated and filled!! Have you ever experienced that? The day your hopelessness met hope? The day your chaos and confusion met the Answer? When the two become one, there is always a bit of a clash: And the compromising begins!

I received a challenge to remove the word "but" from my vocabulary; it has been a very blessed assignment! I'm noticing that my heart is softening, I'm seeing others with more compassion, more understanding, and less of a need to try to fix. Recognizing that GOD is wanting to use EVERY path, EVERY decision (even if it looks like a mistake) for good - for the best! HE won't allow it if it can't be turned into HIS highest and HIS best. So who am I to try to change someone? Who am I to try and manipulate a circumstance to turn out the way I want it to look? HE's got the whole world in HIS hands and is working it for the BEST! When I think of compromise, I hear the word "but" in my mind - "But I don't like that suggestion" - "But that's not what I want" - "But don't you see it's better if..." Removing "but" from our vocabulary is a worthy goal to become more like CHRIST! GOD didn't have any "buts" in His vocabulary when He created the earth....John 1:4-5

Make America Great Again!

The Arctic Ocean is warming up, icebergs are growing scarcer and in some places the seals are finding the water too hot according to a report to the Commerce Department yesterday from the Consulate at Bergen, Norway. Reports from fishermen, seal hunters and explorers all point to a radical change in climate conditions and hitherto unheard of temperatures in the Arctic zone.

Exploration expeditions report that scarcely any ice has appeared as far north as 81 degrees 29 minutes. Soundings to a depth of 3,100 meters showed the gulf stream still very warm. Great masses of ice have been replaced by moraines of earth and stones, the report continued, while at many points well known glaciers have entirely disappeared. Very few seals and no white fish are found in the eastern Arctic, while vast shoals of herring and smelts, which have never before ventured so far north, are being encountered in the old seal fishing grounds. Within a few years it is predicted that due to the ice melt, the sea will rise and make most coast cities uninhabitable.

Oh, I'm sorry, I must apologize. I neglected to mention that this report was from November 2, 1922, as reported by the AP and published in The Washington Post 99 years ago. This must have been caused by the Model T Ford's emissions or possibly from horse and cattle farts. The text in the above example is a genuine transcription of a 1922 newspaper article, an Associated Press account which appeared on page 2 of the Washington Post on 2 November of that year.

WHOSE REPORT DO YOU BELIEVE?

If I could convince all my friends...I mean "ALL" without exception to say, "I believe the report of the LORD", and I might add "above and beyond all other reports," we could be a mighty army marching in victory over the enemy! When I hear the chorus, "Whose Report Do You Believe? We Will Believe the Report of the LORD!" I realize in that statement NO unbelief is found. No other reports are considered - no tradition - no taking surveys - no feelings or reasonings considered... NO unbelief exhibited! That verse simply and powerfully makes a Faith-filled statement, "We Will Believe the Report of the LORD!" I can hear the mighty shout from heaven saying, "Go For It! You Have What You Say!"

This year, this very important year, may my circle of friends meet every circumstance head-on with NO unbelief, no "maybe it won't work" attitudes...just absolute, sold-out Faith in GOD! That sounds like paradise to me. You see, if all my friends would make quality decisions in their hearts, that the only options, in every situation, would be to follow GOD's report and be led by His Promises; then, when challenges come (and they will), AGREEMENT would be much easier and victory would come so quickly. You see, "when two agree on earth about anything they ask, in JESUS' Name, it shall be done for them by GOD, our Father!" (Matthew 18:19) Amos 3:3 tells us that agreement in the spirit is paramount for two walking together and having a relationship. Agreement with GOD's Word is the most important thing in a Believer's walk with Christ.

Maybe it's a dream on my part, but I know it's possible; I've been consumed by this verse, "With men it's impossible, but not with GOD, for ALL things are possible with GOD!" (Mark 10:27) I know the Body of Christ is missing something here, because there are too many sick and too many arguing and too many worried and just not walking in victory. So, I'm making a vow...that I will endeavor to meet every situation head-on, in AGREEMENT with those of you who can stand strong in FAITH...that there will be NO unbelief in the situations we encounter. Come with me now and let's say together, "I Believe the report of the LORD!" Can I count on you?

Pigs, Lipstick and Islam...

A look into daily Muslim life: Is it allowed to put on lipstick only for your husband? Some say that lipstick contains pig fat. Is it true? In such a case are we allowed to apply lipstick? Please advise.

Answer: Praise be to Allah. The basic principle is that anything that is used for adornment and beautification is permissible. Allah says (interpretation of the meaning): "He it is Who created for you all that is on earth." [Al-Baqarah 2:29] If the intention is to beautify yourself for your husband, that may be mustahabb (permissible), because this is something that is prescribed in sharee'ah (Sharia). But this is subject to the condition that nothing haram (harmful) is involved, such as adorning yourself for non-Muslim men to whom it is not permissible to show your beauty. It is also subject to the condition that it does not contain any substance that may harm the body or that is impure such as pig fat. In that case it is haram, because we are forbidden to do things that will harm us, as the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) said: "there should be no harming or reciprocating harm." Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymeen said: There is nothing wrong with using lipstick because the basic principle is that things are permissible until it is made clear that they are haram... But if it becomes clear that it is harmful to the lips, that it dries them out and makes them lose their moisture, then in this case it is not allowed. I have been told that it may cause the lips to crack. If that is proven, then we are forbidden to do things that harm us. Fatawa Manaar al-Islam, 3/831 And Allah knows best. This article, based on the Quran, is definitely not from JESUS, Who said, "I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life...." (John 14:6)

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

As we eagerly embrace this New Year, we set our sights on remaining faithful in the work to which GOD has called us. Thank you for being a part of what happens in Peru through the Home of Refuge. I know there is a day coming when GOD will separate the nations before Him - the sheep on His right hand, and those He refers to as "goats" on His left. The ones on His right will enter into His rest, while the ones on His left will enter into eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. As I look at that portion of Scripture, I can see that each person's eternal dwelling is a result of how their love for GOD (or lack thereof) played out in their life. In a sense, it could be described as simply, "Who remembered the poor and weak...the street people of this world?" JESUS tells us we do it unto Him whenever we do it unto the least of His brethren. Rosa and I want to Thank You for keeping in focus what matters most in life and for sowing generously into the future...and for all eternity.

WE love YOU, Tony and Rosa - Home of Refuge, Peru
