The symbol of the American people - the flag of the United States - has been flown over the battle-scarred island of Iwo Jima, it has been a sign of victory at the Olympics, and it has been burned, mistreated and trampled on by hate-mongers who no longer want a country - "A government of the people, by the people and for the people."

The origin of the first American flag is unknown. Some historians believe it was designed by New Jersey Congressman Francis Hopkinson and sewn by Philadelphia seamstress Betsy Ross. The name "Old Glory" was given to a large, 10-by-17-foot flag owned by, William Driver, a sea captain from Massachusetts. Driver was able to fly the flag over the Tennessee Statehouse once the Civil War ended. Between 1777 and 1960 Congress passed several acts that changed the shape, design and arrangement of the flag and allowed stars and stripes to be added to reflect the admission of each new state.

Today the flag consists of 13 horizontal stripes, seven red alternating with six white. The stripes represent the original 13 colonies and the stars represent the 50 states of the Union. The colors of the flag are symbolic as well; red symbolizes hardiness and valor (the Blood of JESUS Christ), white symbolizes purity and innocence, and blue represents vigilance, justice and perseverance.

The greatest symbol of freedom in the United States, was the cross of Calvary. The life, death and resurrection of JESUS Christ was confirmed over and over again by early leaders of this country. The United States was founded on the Scriptures of the Bible and quoted over and over again by not only the founding fathers, but the Presidents of the United States, like George Washington: "What students would learn in American schools above all is the religion of JESUS Christ." President Washington wanted this freedom for all nations of the world...because he knew that it was through believing on the LORD JESUS Christ that a nation will prosper and succeed: "It is the duty of ALL nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty GOD, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly to implore His protection and favor!" The following are quotes from godly Presidents who served their country well:

Pres. Ronald Reagan said, "The Constitution was never meant to prevent people from praying; it's declared purpose was to protect their freedom TO pray." - "Within the covers of the Bible are the answers for ALL the problems men face."

Pres. Theodore Roosevelt was quoted as saying, "We should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man or woman because of creed, or birth-place, or origin. But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American, and nothing but an American....There can be no divided allegiance here....We have room for but one flag, the American flag.... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language.... And we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people."

"It was for Freedom... that JESUS set us Free!"

In 1893, at the age of 33, Katherine Lee Bates, an English professor at Wellesley College, travelled to Colorado Springs, Colorado, to teach a short summer school session at Colorado College. Several of the sights on her trip inspired her, and they found their way into her poem she wrote while riding on a train on July 16, the highlight being the majestic view of the Great Plains from high atop Pikes Peak. The poem was initially published two years later in The Congregationalist to commemorate the Fourth of July. It quickly caught the public's fancy.

The melody written for the poem was a hymn tune composed by Samuel A. Ward, generally considered the best music for "America the Beautiful" and is still the popular tune today. Ward, a church organist, was so anxious to capture the tune in his head while travelling on a train, asked fellow passenger friend Harry Martin for his shirt cuff to write the tune on. He composed the tune from an old hymn "O Mother, Dear Jerusalem". Ward's music combined with Bates's poem were first published together in 1910 and titled "America the Beautiful": "Oh beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain; for purple mountain majesty above the fruited plain. America! America! GOD shed His Grace on thee, and crowned thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea."

"If we hold tightly to anything given to us, unwilling to allow it to be used as the Giver means it to be used, we stunt the growth of the soul. What GOD gives us is not necessarily 'ours' but only ours to offer back to Him, ours to relinquish, ours to lose, ours to let go of, if we want to be our true selves. Many deaths must go into reaching our maturity in Christ, many letting goes." "Of one thing I am perfectly sure: GOD's story never ends with 'ashes'... "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain that which he cannot lose." Jim Elliot, missionary, martyred by the Auca Indians - cannibals (1956). "To be a follower of the Crucified means, sooner or later, a personal encounter with the cross...the cross always entails loss; the great symbol of Christianity means sacrifice and no one who calls himself a Christian can evade this stark fact!" Elisabeth Elliot, widow of Jim Elliot

A Flag For Class Assignment...

Story submitted by Harold Fast

Jacob, a young man from Indiana, designed a flag for an art project in school. What he did went viral in a big way. He delivered it to school in the back of his pick-up - 4,466 army men painted red, white and blue. He worked more than 52 hours painting and placing these plastic soldiers to make the stripes and the stars. Most of the painting was done outside in single digit temperatures, with the help of two friends.

What a great way to honor the troops! It was not revealed what grade he received, but Jacob deserves an A+! GOD bless you, Jacob, and all our young people who honor and respect the United States of America!

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Come with me as I give you a quick glimpse of the hungry Believers gathered in Cusco. This is His church - your new Brothers and Sisters in Christ - growing in the knowledge of GOD and bursting with gratitude! With their hands lifted up and tears of gladness streaming down their faces, they are learning to worship and glorify GOD! Your giving has paved the way for this remarkable journey of Faith that has begun in Peru! Julio Apasa Sr., the patriarch of the original family we ministered to in Cusco, prayed this beautiful prayer: "LORD JESUS, I thank You for sending Tony and Rosa to our family to bring us the Word, and for giving us this chance to open up our home for services so that more people can hear Your truth."

Roof going up in Cardompata, Peru

We are humbled, content, and grateful to experience this outpouring of the Spirit of GOD in Peru - this transformation of lives, entire families and whole communities! Their tears of joy are your tears of joy, and their songs of praise are your songs of praise... and we say "Thank YOU for doing your amazing, generous part in making this happen in Peru.

You are going into all the world with your prayers and offerings...making disciples: "GO therefore, and MAKE DISCIPLES of all the nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit...teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo I Am with you, even to the end of the age!" (Matthew 28:19-20)
