

A Man And His Corvette...

A man named Tom Nicholson had just purchased a Corvette, and he tells of a man who approached him and told him that the money used to buy this car could've fed thousands of less fortunate people. Tom's wisdom showed as he responded to the critic (wish I would've thought of it). Here is the reply he gave:

"A guy looked at my Corvette the other day and said, 'I wonder how many people could have been fed for the money that sports car cost?' I replied, 'I'm not sure; it fed a lot of families in Bowling Green, Kentucky, who built it; it fed the people who make the tires; it fed the people who made the components that went into it; it fed the people in the copper mine who mined the copper for the wires; it fed people in at Caterpillar who make the trucks that haul the copper ore. It fed the trucking people who hauled it from the plant to the dealer and fed the people working at the dealership and their families. BUT, I have to admit, I guess I really don't know how many people it fed. That is the difference between capitalism and the welfare mentality."

When you buy something, you put money in people's pockets and give them dignity for their skills. When you give someone something for nothing, you rob them of their dignity and self-worth. Capitalism is freely giving your money in exchange for something of value. Socialism is having the government take your money against your will and giving it to someone else for doing nothing! Keep the Faith; GOD is not finished with this country!

"I will arise and go forth in the Name of the LORD of Hosts...for He has conquered every foe by His Name!"

We can't deny that what the people of the United States have gone through for the last two years is beyond tolerable. So many people, even fully vaxxed and boosted are still on the brink of hysteria...unable to function as "normal" human beings. But the one who follows JESUS Christ will not react the way the world reacts to these lies and deceptions. The Child of GOD will hold on to the Promises of GOD...

I can't tell you how many times I've curled up in bed with tears on my pillow and cried for morning to come. I have a moment to rest, but then the memories come flooding in. I have made Kleenex company very rich in the past 30 years. But even in the midst of my darkest hours, JESUS is right there with me...and Joy comes as a result of letting Him have every emotion and every thought.

Maybe this year is not going like you'd like it. Maybe you have been working for a company that requires vaccinations and a booster; maybe you have quit over that issue. And now you're asking GOD, "What do I do, LORD?" GOD has a plan for you... "...a plan for good and not evil, to give you a hope and a future." (Jer. 29:11) Maybe you have had a chronic illness and you're asking "When, GOD, will I see my life without pain?" Or maybe you were looking forward to a good financial idea...and it didn't pan out. I have a Scripture for you...one that will help you "Hold On" until your answer is manifested:

Psalm 30:1-12 (NLT) - "I will exalt You, LORD, for You rescued me. You refused to let my enemies triumph over me (those thoughts that come to destroy your dream). O LORD my GOD, I cried to You for help, and You restored my health. You kept me from falling into the pit of death.

Sing to the LORD, all you godly ones! Praise His Holy Name!
For His anger lasts only a moment, but His Favor lasts a lifetime!
Weeping may last through the night, but Joy comes with the morning.
When I was prosperous, I said, "Nothing can stop me now!" Your Favor, O LORD, made me as secure as a mountain. And when You didn't answer me, I cried out to You, O LORD, asking You for mercy, saying, "What will You gain if I die? Can I speak of Your faithfulness? Hear me, and have mercy on me, O LORD. You have turned my mourning into Joyful dancing. You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with Joy, that I might sing praises to You and not be silent. O LORD my GOD, I will give You thanks forever!"

Psalm 30:5 can mean that after a time of spiritual darkness, Joy will be restored. Some nights may be long and dark, but after a night of praising GOD and thanking Him for the answer, as an act of your will...Joy fills your heart when you awake. Otherwise those dark nights turn into a string of dark days. When you allow GOD to meet you in your pain, the Joy will come. As King David wrote in Psalm 30, I have also seen the Goodness and Favor of GOD and His hand at work even in the worst circumstances. I can promise you...Joy does come in the morning. GOD exults over you with Joy; accept the Joy of the LORD and your circumstances will change.

"I cannot be silent...Joy comes in the Morning!"

The people pictured on the left, have given themselves over to an evil and demonic power that is bent on destroying our democracy. They have lusted for power and financial gain. GOD, Who is Judge, will hold court in heaven and make them accountable and will have His way! Hold on to that hope of seeing Justice roll down like waters, and Righteousness like an ever-flowing stream...Amos 5:24

“it is the Spirit Who gives life...the flesh profits nothing! The Words that I speak are Spirit and Life! ”
(JESUS speaking in John 6:63)

St. Patrick's Day in the Emerald Isle

So many people celebrate St. Patrick's Day with drinking and bar hopping. They don't have any idea why they're celebrating St. Patrick's Day. So, how did March 17 become a world-wide holiday? Saint Patrick's Day was made an official Christian feast day in the early 17th century and is observed by the Catholic Church, the Anglican Communion (especially the Church of Ireland), the Eastern Orthodox Church, and the Lutheran Church. The day commemorates Saint Patrick and the arrival of Christianity in Ireland, and celebrates the heritage and culture of the Irish people. The Irish people are a people full of emotion, with a rich heritage of hard work and loyalty to country and family.

Celebrations generally involve public parades and festivals, the wearing of green attire, and the four-leaf clovers - shamrocks are seen everywhere. In the United States the "wearing of the green" has become an over-the-top tradition, with green even appearing in the waters of some rivers, like the Chicago River (lower left). Christians belonging to liturgical denominations also attend church services, where fasting restrictions on eating and drinking alcohol are lifted for the day, which has encouraged and propagated the holiday's tradition of alcohol consumption.

Derin's heritage was Irish on both sides of the family - McGuigen was his mother's maiden name. His great-great grandparents came to the four corner's area in a covered wagon, and lived a very hard life, although they loved GOD. His grandfather was a circuit rider going from church to church early in the 20th century. Many times we traveled to Durango, Colorado, where he was born, going to cemeteries and visiting churches where his father and grandfather pastored. Derin had planned on taking me to Ireland...and someday...we will see the Emerald Isle, part of GOD's millennial creation!

SPRING INTO ACTION..GO FOR IT!

a child's perspective...

One day a very wealthy father took his son on a trip to the country for the sole purpose of showing his son how it was to be poor. They spent a few days and nights on the farm of what would be considered a very poor family. After their return from the farm, the father asked his son how he liked the trip. "It was great, Dad," the son replied. "Did you see how poor people can be?" the father asked. "Oh yeah," said the son. "So what did you learn from the trip?" asked the father.

The son answered, "I saw that we have one dog and they had four. We have a pool that reaches to the middle of our garden and they have a creek that has no end. We have imported lanterns in our garden and they have the stars at night. Our patio reaches to the front yard and they have the whole horizon! We have a small piece of land to live on and they have fields that go beyond our sight. We have servants who serve us, but they serve others. We buy our food, but they grow theirs. We have walls around our property to protect us; they have friends to protect them." The boy's father was speechless. Then his son added, "It showed me just how poor we really are!"

Too many times we forget what we have and concentrate on what we don't have. What is one person's worthless object is another's prize possession...it is all based on one's perspective. And sometimes it takes the perspective of a child to remind us what is important.

“I have been young and now I am old and never have I seen the righteous forsaken or his seed (his descendants) begging for bread (going hungry).” (Psalm 37:25)

“But godliness actually is a source of great gain when accompanied by contentment [that contentment which comes from a sense of inner confidence based on the sufficiency of GOD]...if we have food and covering, with these we shall be content.” (I Timothy 6:6 AMP)

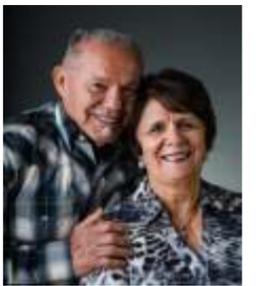

“My GOD shall supply ALL your need according to His riches in Christ JESUS!” (Philippians 4:19)

“You are His Masterpiece, created in Christ JESUS for good works...works of poetry, to fulfill the destiny He has given each of you...for you are joined to JESUS, the Anointed One. Even before you were born, GOD planned in advance your destiny of good works!” (Eph. 2:10 TPT)

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

The sands of time are passing as we turn another corner and find ourselves moving through 2022. It is true that "Time Flies"...and time does fly with all the work and the message of JESUS that we are called to do. 2022 is at our disposal to accomplish two things: 1) Bring GOD Glory, and 2) Bring forth fruit that remains. That is what your prayers and giving bring about through this ministry; THANK YOU for being a vital part of this ministry in Peru, South America...it seems like these people are in an isolated part of the world...maybe I could say they are forgotten when it comes to knowing the Gospel of JESUS Christ. GOD always SEEKS and SAVES no matter where people are...He finds them and saves them because He is a Redeemer, Restorer and Deliverer!

Joy is waiting for all those people who will Believe the message that JESUS Christ is Savior and LORD...THANK YOU for helping us in this great endeavor. “The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His Face shine upon you and be gracious to you; the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you Peace.” Working Together For the Kingdom in PERU, Tony and Rosa
