There is so much fear in this world...people trying desperately to be distracted from what’s going on. They are endeavoring to keep a good attitude by spending time being entertained and keeping themselves busy with things that don’t come into play when tomorrow arrives - they are wrapped up in activities and projects that keep their minds off of what’s really happening. GOD is going to have His time to settle every wrong action and every diabolical plan that has been committed against Him.

In the meantime, what should the people who have given their hearts to the LORD - what should they be doing?

Psalm 27:4 (Passion), “Here’s the one thing I crave from GOD, the one thing I seek above all else...I want the privilege of living with Him every moment in His house, finding the sweet loveliness of His face, delighting in His Glory and Grace. I want to live my life so close to Him that He takes pleasure in my every prayer. In His shelter in the day of trouble, that’s where you’ll find me, for He hides me there in His holiness. He has smuggled me into His Secret Place, where I’m kept safe and secure out of reach from all my enemies. You’re the GOD of my salvation!”

When things haven’t worked out for you on this earth, “My father and mother abandoned me; but You took me in and made me Yours. Now teach me all about Your ways and tell me what to do. Make it clear for me to understand Your ways, for I am surrounded by enemies, lurking in the shadows. Don’t let them defeat me, LORD. I totally trust You to rescue me so that I can see once again how good You are! I would’ve been in despair if I had not seen the Goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.”

There are several things that come into play from David’s Psalm; First of all, GOD is the One Whom David centers his mind on; he focuses on the GOD Who has saved him time and time again. Are you focusing on GOD during the hours that you’re awake? Are you filled with awe and joy, delighting in His Glory and Grace? Where do you go when trouble comes knocking at your door. Does Psalm 91 really mean anything to you? He is ready to “snuggle” you in His Secret Place. Is He your strength and refuge that you run to, or do you seek advice from the worldly channels of sense knowledge?

Psalm 27:14, “Here’s what I’ve learned through it all: ‘Don’t give up; don’t be impatient; be entwined as one with the LORD (like the wick of a candle).

Be brave and courageous, and Never...Never lose hope. Yes, keep on waiting - for He will never disappoint you!”

In the meantime you are sustained by the Giver of Life - JESUS. He was in the beginning with GOD and nothing was created without Him. Life came into being because of His creative Power, and “In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men. And the Light shines in the darkness and overpowers the darkness!” (John 1:5) This is JESUS, your Savior, in action in your life today. With your Faith in His Anointing and Ability, He will triumph over every attack of the enemy. When you invite Holy Spirit into your day, He will continually surround your life with His super abundance until you radiate with Hope...

And Hope Does Not Disappoint!

Make America Great Again!

This is a conundrum of amazing history facts about Presidents Lincoln and Kennedy:

Abraham Lincoln was elected to Congress in 1846; John F. Kennedy was elected to Congress in 1946.

Lincoln was elected President in 1860; Kennedy was elected President in 1960. Both were focused on civil rights. Both presidents lost a child while living in the White House. Both presidents were shot on a Friday; both presidents were shot in the head.

Now it really becomes strange in regarding their legacies:

Lincoln's secretary was named Kennedy; Kennedy's secretary was named Lincoln. Both were assassinated by men from the south. Both were succeeded by southerners named Johnson; Andrew Johnson, who succeeded Lincoln, was born in 1808; Lyndon B. Johnson, who succeeded Kennedy, was born in 1908. John Wilkes Booth, who assassinated Lincoln, was born in 1839. Lee Harvey Oswald, who assassinated Kennedy, was born in 1939. Both assassins were known by their three names...both names are composed of 15 letters.

Now, hang onto your seat: Lincoln was shot in the theater named "Ford". Kennedy was shot in a car - a Lincoln - made by Ford. Both Booth and Oswald were assassinated before their trials.

Here's the kicker: A week before Lincoln was shot, he was in Monroe, Maryland; a week before Kennedy was shot, he was with Marilyn Monroe. But wait...there's more: Lincoln was shot in a theater and the assassin ran to a warehouse; Kennedy was shot from a warehouse and his assassin ran to a theater. What a coincidence...or was it?

"Even though the fig trees have no blossoms, and there are no grapes on the vines; even though the olive crop fails, and the fields lie empty and barren; even though the flocks die in the fields, and the cattle barns are empty... I will rejoice in the GOD of my salvation... The LORD GOD is my strength, and He has made my feet like hinds' feet and makes me walk on my high places!" (Habakkuk 3:17-18)

"The Eye Of the Needle...."

There has been much discussion about JESUS' comments regarding rich peoples' likelihood of not going to heaven...He likened it to a camel going through "the eye of a needle": "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into GOD's Kingdom." (Mark 10:25) Some theorize that the needle JESUS was speaking of was the Needle Gate, supposedly a low and narrow after-hours entrance found in the wall surrounding Jerusalem. It is said that it was purposely small for security reasons, and a camel could only go through it by stripping off any saddles or packs and crawling through on its knees.

The problem with this theory is there is no evidence such a gate ever existed in JESUS' time, and only appeared around 700 AD. The word translated "camel" (Greek: kamelos) should actually be "rope" (kamilos). See the similarities in the Greek? Then the verse would read, "It is easier for a rope to go through the eye of a needle...."

The most likely explanation is that JESUS was using a figure of speech that exaggerates for emphasis. JESUS used this technique at other times, referring to a "plank" in one's eye (Matthew 7:3-5) and swallowing a camel (Matthew 23:24). JESUS' message is clear - it is impossible for anyone to be saved on his own merits. The disciples were utterly amazed and asked, "Who then can be saved?" in the next verse. JESUS' answer is the basis of the gospel: "With man this is impossible, but not with GOD; all things are possible with GOD." (Matthew 19:26). Men are saved through GOD's gifts of grace, mercy, and faith (Ephesians 2:8-9). Nothing we do earns salvation for us. It is the poor in spirit who inherit the Kingdom of GOD (Matthew 5:3), those who recognize their spiritual poverty and their utter inability to do anything to justify themselves to a holy GOD. The rich man so often is blind to his spiritual poverty because he is proud of his accomplishments and has contented himself with his wealth. He is as likely to humble himself before GOD as a camel is to crawl through the eye of a needle.

Knowing the True Meaning of Psalm 23...

Years ago the great actor Richard Burton was given a grand reception in his childhood parish. While replying to the complimentary speeches in the parish auditorium he asked if there was anything they specially wanted to hear from him. After a minute's pause his old pastor asked him if he could recite the Good Shepherd Psalm (Psalm 23), which he had taught Burton in his Sunday school. A strange look came over the actor's face. He paused for a moment, and then said, "I will, on one condition - that after I have recited it, you, my pastor and teacher will do the same." "I am not an actor," said the old, retired pastor, "but, if you want me to recite it, I shall do so." The actor began quoting Psalm 23; his voice and intonation were perfect. He held his audience spellbound, and as he finished, a great burst of applause broke from the audience.

As it died away, the old pastor rose from his wheelchair and began to recite the same Psalm. His voice was feeble and shivering and his tone was not faultless. But, when he finished, there was not a dry eye in the room. The actor rose and his voice quivered as he said, "Ladies and gentlemen, I reached your eyes and ears, but my pastor has reached your hearts. The difference is just this: I know the Psalm, but he knows the Shepherd." JESUS wants us to know Him by experiencing Him and to become good shepherds to those entrusted to our care.

David wrote the 23rd Psalm when he was in King Saul's palace, playing his lyre for the king. Several times an evil spirit came upon King Saul and he tried to pin David to the wall with a spear. But David slipped away out of Saul's presence and fled into the night. David was in a very dangerous place when he wrote Psalm 23:

"The LORD is my Shepherd, I shall not want for anything. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters; He restores my soul. He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil...my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD Forever!"

Halloween - "the devil's holiday"

Halloween is a holiday created by the devil to keep GOD's people distracted and off-balance. Don't give in to those demonic spirits, because the enemy comes as an "angel of light": "For even satan disguises himself as an 'angel of light'." (II Corinthians 11:14) Go to the website www.freedomstreet.org and click on "Halloween" on the "Freedom Corner" page. May you be blessed with wisdom and understanding!

Home Of Refuge

Saving the Lost...Loving the Unlovable

Tadeo had been married to the love of his life, Jesusa, for 60 years and the five children that they raised were now living far away from them. In December of 2021 Tadeo was hit by a car and transported to a hospital in Lima, where he remained for two weeks, and then into rehab. Jesusa remained all alone in a little hut in Curahuasi...600 miles from Tadeo. Jesusa's daughter, who lived in Lima, was concerned about her mother, and hearing about Home of Refuge, she got in contact with them. Home of Refuge responded by arranging for someone to rescue Jesusa from Curahuasi and bringing her to Home of Refuge.

Home of Refuge was taking care of her physical needs of food, clothing and shelter, but there was one thing Jesusa still needed - Tadeo! Through your faithful support, Home of Refuge agreed to take Tadeo in. When Tadeo saw his wife after several months of being separated, he cried as he tenderly cupped her face in his hands, showered her cheeks and forehead with tears and countless little kisses and kept repeating the phrase, "Mi viejita, mi viejita!" (a very endearing term similar in meaning to, "My tender little lady").

They are now in a room of their very own, and everywhere they go throughout the Home of Refuge, they go hand-in-hand. They are like "two teenagers in love!" We thank GOD for givers like you who have helped make life Beautiful for so many in this country!
